Six authors. Seven books. Seven deadly sins.

THE ELITE SEVEN SERIES:

Dark romance

LUST by Ker Dukey (Book 1)

I was born with wealth, athletic ability, and looks that could melt the panties off a nun. I had a clear path to success. Until fate dealt me a cruel blow, leaving me empty and in need of purpose. My only focus now is to become part of The Elite—a secret society in one of the most prestigious colleges in the world. But everything comes at a price, and with The Elite, you have to earn your place. Lucky for me, being sinful is in my DNA. The only obstacle to full initiation is my task: seduce the un-seducible, the forbidden, and lure her with the sins of the flesh. Easy for a man like me...in theory.

She started as my task, but what happens when the lines between lust and love blur, and the need for power rages war with the need for her? Accept your sin wisely, for the tasks given to earn your place are not for the weak—they're for The Elite. This is my life, my chance, my legacy.

I am Rhet Masters. I am Lust.

PRETTY STOLEN DOLLS (Book 1)

Psychological thriller

Benny loves his pretty little dolls. As long as they do exactly as they're told. He keeps them perfect by brushing their hair and gives them pretty dresses to wear. He likes to toy with them late at night. One so timid but the other likes to fight. When his favourite doll runs away...his heart becomes broken and he can't help but cry. He wants her back home or his pretty little doll must die.

Have you ever had to make a decision that haunts you every single day for the rest of your life...The life you stole back? I ran for my survival, rocks and twigs cutting into the soles of my feet, my lungs burning and screaming for rest, every muscle tensed and fighting along with me for existence. I ran, ran, ran – from Benny and his lone pretty dolls – until I couldn't remember where to find them again. I'm sorry.

THE WOMAN IN THE WHITE KIMONO 小さい鳥

historical

OCEANS AND DECADES APART, TWO WOMEN ARE INEXTRICABLY BOUND BY THE SECRETS BETWEEN THEM.

Japan, 1957. Seventeen-year-old Naoko Nakamura's prearranged marriage to the son of her father's business associate secures her family's status in their traditional Japanese community, but Naoko has fallen for another man, an American sailor. When it's learned Naoko carries the sailor's child, she's cast out in disgrace and forced to make unimaginable choices with consequences that will ripple across generations.

America, present day. Tori Kovač, caring for her dying father, finds a letter containing a shocking revelation that calls into question everything she understood about him, her family, and herself. Setting out to learn the truth behind the letter, Tori's journey leads her half-way around the world to a remote sea-side village in Japan, where she must confront the demons of the past to pave a way for redemption.

A poignant, sweeping novel of spirit and love that travels the difficult road to acceptance through secrets, sacrifice, and lies as both women, past and present, confront social stigmas, secret burial grounds, exiled communities, and the gut-wrenching consequences of their own choices.

The author is using the pen-name "Ana Johns" – she's published a couple of romantic comedies (also translated in 11 languages). Born and raised in Detroit, this is her first historical fiction and is aimed at the reading group market.

She is the opposite of her mum, a free spirit who craved finding adventure and thrills in all corners of the world. But on the day her mum's will is finalised, Eva finds a list of all the dreams her mum wanted to achieve in her life. Things she never did because she fell pregnant with Eva.

Eva decides these dreams will not go unfulfilled - she is going to be brave and complete them for her mum. As Eva has no experience travelling the world, she hires a guide to go with her on this holiday.

Gorgeous but rude Thor Anderson is not the person she would choose to accompany her on this journey, but somehow she gets stuck with him. As they discover the world together Eva starts to think he might not be as bad as she first thought. She is swept away by Thor's kindness and mischievous sense of humour. But will it be a simple holiday romance or could this wonderful adventure lead to so much more?

KULT

Thriller

A dark and gripping crime thriller inspired by shocking and tragic true events in the Church of Scientology

When a four-year-old girl and her father are found dead in the Swedish city of Karlskrona, the police quickly conclude it was a murder-suicide, a tragedy requiring no further investigation.

But Luke Bergmann, a reformed criminal still haunted by his violent past, believes they are wrong. The dead man, Viktor, was his best friend, and Luke knows he would never commit such a horrific crime.

When more bodies turn up, Luke embarks alone on an investigation which reaches back through decades to his friend's involvement with a sinister cult – the Church of Scientology. And when Luke finds himself in a killer's sights, his search for the truth becomes the fight of his life.

“What a box of tricks! This full-throttle thriller, dark and driving, rivals Agatha Christie for sheer ingenuity and James Patterson for flat-out speed. Swift, sharp, and relentless.”

— A. J. Finn, #1 New York Times bestselling author of The Woman in the Window

“NO EXIT by Taylor Adams is an intense, brutal, no-holds-barred thriller dripping with adrenalin; a heart-pounding story of courage and sacrifice featuring a heroine unlike any you’ve ever seen. Don’t start unless you’re prepared to read straight through, because I guarantee you will not be able to stop turning the pages.” – Karen Dionne, author of the international bestseller The Marsh King’s Daughter

“No Exit is everything I want in a thriller: ingeniously crafted, unapologetically relentless, and shamelessly suspenseful. The twists go off like a series of expertly planted detonations and the tension never lets up. I was blown away. No Exit is a damn good time.” - Joe Hill, #1 New York Times bestselling author of The Fireman

What is it about the coast that attracts people running from their past?

Maybe there's something in a sea breeze that blows away your problems. Maybe when you look out at the ocean you can see the future; forget the secrets and pain holding you back.

Or at least you can forget them for a time.

When Olivia moves to Port Townsend, her marriage is floundering, and her life is in pieces. She doesn't know if things with her husband Mark are truly over, or quite why the phone call she longs for on her daughter's birthday will never come.

Joining a letter-writing club seems like a harmless decision. But when she meets Ned, an ex-soldier badly wounded in Afghanistan, this unlooked-for friendship revives unexpected emotions and memories she'd rather forget.

Can Olivia find the courage to confront what she's hiding from and finally begin to heal the wounds that have torn her life apart? From the bestselling author of After You Left comes a story about finding hope in second chances.

THE BILLION DOLLAR SECRET: 20 Principles of Billionaire Wealth and Success

Business/self-development

There are thousands of books on millionaire thinking. The knowledge they offer isn't enough to get you to the highest ranks of wealth. The richest people of our times are billionaires. Only one in five million world citizens belongs to this group. Billionaires are extremely rare, and their mindset differs hugely from ordinary millionaires.

This book offers firsthand knowledge of billionaire entrepreneurs told in their own words. Never before has someone interviewed 20+ self-made billionaires across the world for a book project. The author worked for years with some of the very best entrepreneurs on the planet and distilled their secrets into 20 mental principles that enabled them to start from zero and create billions of dollars in value during one life span.

Rafael Badziag is a global entrepreneur, top TED speaker and an award-winning author. As an expert in psychology of entrepreneurship specializing in self-made billionaires, he was featured on NBC, ABC, CBS and FOX as well as in USA Today, Wall Street Journal and other national newspapers and TV networks in several countries. In the nineties, he built his first multi-million dollar business, pioneering ecommerce in Europe. Rafael has given some of the most successful TED talks in history. In recent years, Rafael has been working with over two dozen self-made billionaires around the world, to find out what made them so extremely successful in business. He is known as the first man in history to win that many billionaires for a book project on a global scale and is called The Billionaire Magnet.

MATT POTTER

CYBER MERCENARIES The incredible true story of how a secret Internet army conquered the world

True Crime/History/Current Affairs

The book begins twenty years ago, when journalist Matt Potter received an email containing secret NATO battle plans sent from inside the military superpower's HQ. Shortly afterwards he was pulled in by MI5 and interrogated as a suspected spy. Confused, a little scared and very, very intrigued, Matt set out to find out how and why this happened, embarking on an investigation into the origins of hacking which would last two decades. CYBER MERCS is the result of his extraordinary journey into the online underworld.

Far from the image of engineers and labs, this is an arena where street-kids become mercenaries; superpower militaries are defeated by teenagers; spies vanish and rise again as tech consultants; lethal assassins live undercover as escorts and glamorous pop stars; and organized crime lords make Silicon Valley CEOs offers they can't refuse. Because just like physical conflict, cyber war is about humans, at their worst, most desperate, and – sometimes – most heroic.

This is the untold story of cyber warfare, which reveals its origins worthy of a Bond movie in the last days of the Cold War and reveals how over the decades, via the ganglands of Eastern Europe to the Pentagon, and from Russian psyops to the corridors of Facebook, the world we think we inhabit has become their world.

From a group of Eastern European teenagers to governments around the globe and organized crime, from silicon valley to the world's most ingenious – and powerful – mercenaries, this is the incredible true and untold story of cyber warfare, the people who wage it and how their dark arts define today's world.

Matt Potter is a journalist, editor and broadcaster, writing and presenting on global politics, security and crime for the Washington Post, the BBC and more. He is also a contributor to the Telegraph, London Evening Standard, Men's Journal, Hollywood movies, and Discovery Channel. He has reported for the BBC from Russia, the Balkans, the USA, Afghanistan, Japan, China and Southeast Asia, has won two Sony Awards for radio, and his stories on organised crime, dirty conflict and arm and drug trafficking have been published in 29 languages. He is the author of two books, Outlaws Inc: Flying with the World's Most Dangerous Smugglers (Bloomsbury in the US, Macmillan in the UK), which is now in production as a Hollywood movie through Thunder Road Studio (the team behind 'The Expendables'), and The Last Goodbye.

DNA NATION

Popular science

How the Internet of Genes is Changing your Life

Millions of people have done it: with a few clicks and some spit, and at less than the cost of a fancy dinner, you can buy a reading of your DNA online. You can then find out where you came from, trace relatives around the world, find new friends on a genetic social network, learn about your predisposition to disease, get a genetically tailored diet and even find a date. It's the dawn of consumer genomics, where the progress of biology meets the power of the Internet and big data.

But do these applications work? What do scientists say? Do we really understand the implications? What happens if things go wrong and the data is misused?

If you are interested in how social media meets scientific advancement, and what it means for you, then this is the book for you.

Sergio Pistoï is a science writer and an award-winning book author with a PhD in molecular biology. His journalistic credits include Scientific American, Reuters, the New Scientist, Nature and many others.

Rights: Crux Publishing (UK and Commonwealth) for publication in October 2019, to coincide with a major 90-minute ITV special entitled 'Ant and Dec's DNA Journey'. (Three more ITV programmes focusing on different celebrities will be broadcast in 2020).
