Teenage burn survivor Wilder Tate faces the challenges of high school but in the aftermath of tragedy he discovers the capacity to forgive and empathize— learning the importance of healing from the inside out.

Teenage burn survivor, Wilder Tate, begins high school ashamed of his disfigurement. He finds an outlet tapping into his one-dimensional basketball talent as a shutdown defender and courts his cheerleader dreamgirl, only to endure heartbreak and setbacks that drive him to have a tissue expander operation to rid himself of his scar tissue for good, but at what price? The operation costs him his basketball career and puts a wedge between him and his best friend, his mother, and his classmates. The only girl who understands him is Lane Makansi, an ostracized and bullied cutter who sees the truth of Wilder's self-loathing. Their unlikely friendship begins to salve their deep internal wounds when tragedy strikes--and Lane is the culprit. In the aftermath, Wilder discovers a capacity to forgive and empathize that he has never once applied to himself, leading to a dramatic decision that will change his life, and Lane's life, forever.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- BASED ON TRUE EVENTS: The book loosely mirrors Venturini's experience as a burn victim in high school.
- BULLYING AND DISABILITY: These two important topics are central to the book's narrative- it will be a perfect conversation starter for educators everywhere.
- OVERCOMING ADVERSITY: Wilder Tate overcomes a host of horrible circumstances with optimism and palpable hope.

Fred Venturini was born in Patoka, Illinois. His short fiction has been published in the Booked Anthology, Noir at the Bar 2, and Surreal South '13. His story "Gasoline" is featured in Chuck Palahniuk's Burnt Tongues collection. He lives in Southern Illinois with his wife and daughter.

STRINGS
Ables Book 2
Jeremy Scott

Three years after the showdown with Finch razed their hometown of Freepoint and changed their lives forever, Phillip & the rest of The Ables gang find another school year interrupted by a growing threat. Relations with the government have never been more strained and the political rhetoric has shifted to a more hostile tone when discussing those with special abilities. A new branch of Homeland Security has been empowered to investigate custodial acts of heroism and even detain suspects indefinitely. While juggling his leadership responsibilities over the dozens of Ables members, a new crush, and a growing anxiety problem...Phillip will have to decide how much of The Ables' time will be spent training for simulation games and how much will be spent stepping into the real-world crime-fighting holes created by the custodians that have disappeared--presumed to be imprisoned or worse. Confronted with a mysterious new villain wielding a previously unknown power, Phillip, Bentley, & Henry will be forced to stretch their abilities and their bonds further than ever before.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

EDGAR AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR J.W. OCKER SPINS THIS DARK, PSYCHOLOGICAL THRILLER ABOUT A TRAVEL WRITER WHO STAYS FOR 13 NIGHTS AT THE INFAMOUS ROTTERDAM MANSION UNPREPARED FOR THE HORRORS THAT LIE WITHIN-- A TRUE LOVE LETTER TO THE HAUNTED HOUSE GENRE.

Felix Allsey is a travel writer with a keen eye for the paranormal, and he's carved out a unique, if only slightly lucrative, niche for himself in nonfiction; he writes travelogues of the country's most haunted places, after haunting them himself. When he convinces the owner of the infamous Rotterdam Mansion to let him stay on the premises for 13 nights, he believes he's finally found the location that will bring him a bestseller. As with his other gigs, he sets rules for himself: no leaving the house for any reason, refrain from outside contact, and sleep during the day. When Thomas Ruth, Felix's oldest friend and fellow horror film obsessive, joins him on the project, the two dance around a recent and unspeakably painful rough-patch in their friendship, but eventually fall into their old rhythms of dark humor and movie trivia. That's when things start going wrong: screams from upstairs, figures in the thresholds, and more than what should be in any basement. Felix realizes the book he's writing, and his very state of mind, is tilting from nonfiction into all out horror, and the shocking climax answers a question that's been staring these men in the face all along: In Rotter House, who's haunting who?

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR: Ocker won two Lowell Thomas Awards from the American Society of Travel Writers, and his nonfiction book Poe-land: The Hallowed Haunts of Edgar Allan Poe was nominated for an Anthony Award and won the 2015 Edgar Award.
- PARANORMAL THRILLER: A haunted house thriller like you have never read before— this page-turning book will leave you at the edge of your seat until the very end and is guaranteed to satisfy thrill seekers and horror fans.

J. W. Ocker is the Edgar Award-winning author of Poe-Land. He runs the website Odd Things I've Seen, where he chronicles his visits to various oddities of culture, art, and history. His writing has been featured in Rue Morgue magazine, CNN.com, American Exorcist: Critical Essays on William Peter Blatty, and Studies in Australian Weird Fiction. Ocker lives in Nashua, NH.

DIABHAL (GAELIC FOR "DEVIL") FOLLOWS CEIT ROBERTSON AS SHE EXPLORES THE TRUE NATURE OF EVIL AND WICKEDNESS. IN HER WORLD OF CULTS, EXORCISMS, AND UNSPEAKABLE HORRORS, SHE DISCOVERS THAT PERHAPS THE DEVIL IS NOT WHAT WE SHOULD TRULY FEAR.

Diabhal (Devil) is the story of cults, exorcisms and the devil in 1980's era Los Angeles. Ceit Robertson, age ten, is the next Matrarc to the Society, a cultish, matriarchal group living in an inconspicuous cul-de-sac in Venice Beach. When Ceit's mother is attacked by spirits from the old world, a failed exorcism results in Ceit's exile into the foster care system in Los Angeles. She eventually lands in the infamous MacLaren Hall, a very real and historically auspicious center for disturbed and abandoned children in El Monte, CA. Diabhal is the sympathetic story of the devil in Los Angeles. The exploration of the true nature of evil and how intention colors what our definition of wickedness truly is. Ceit grows into a force of nature, as she contains the potential and mythology of the darkest degree, but discovers that perhaps the devil is not what we should truly fear.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- NOTABLE AUTHOE: Kaufman wrote the highly-praise books The Laird-balor and Hag and has an academic background in language and literature education.
- MAGIC AND OCCULT: Entertainment about dark magic, especially with female protagonists, is a hot topic right now with tv shows like The Chilling Adventures of Sabrina and American Horror Story hitting the top of the charts.
- SPELLBOUND SERIES: Diabhal is the first book in a series following Ceit Robertson's journey into her magical life-- from high school to college and beyond.

Kathleen Kaufman is a native Coloradan and long-time resident of Los Angeles. Her prose has been praised by Kirkus Reviews as "crisp, elegant" and "genuinely chilling" by Booklist. She is the author of The Tree Museum, The Lairdbalor, soon to be a feature film with Echo Lake Studios and director Nicholas Verso, and her most recent, Hag, due out in October 2018. Kathleen is a monster enthusiast, Olympic-level insomniac and aficionado of all things unsettling. When not writing, she can be found teaching literature and composition at Santa Monica College or hanging out with a good book. She lives in Los Angeles with her husband, son, terrier and a pack of cats

DR. TERRY ROBERTS, THE DIRECTOR OF THE NATIONAL PAIDEIA CENTER, EXPLORES HOW CREATIVITY IS THE NEW MEASURE OF TRUE INTELLIGENCE AND HOW WE SHOULD EDUCATE OUR CHILDREN FOR SUCCESS IN AN INCREASINGLY COMPLEX WORLD.

The New Smart is a riveting study of the kinds of minds that will succeed in the 21st century. As it turns out, the key ingredient for all aspects of life is not traditional IQ but creativity. This book is a 21st century exploration into intelligence and creativity. It argues that the old notion of intelligence as a static quotient (and with it, the companion terms such as clever, quick, gifted) has ceased to mean much of value. Being smart, especially as it's related to test scores and school grades, has less and less to do with success in contemporary life. Both these words and the ideas they represent are worn out. What our fragmented and volatile society requires is something different, something less static and predictable. Our new age demands something much more fluid, much more resilient—much more creative. In this book, we ask who will thrive in 2050?

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- FIELD EXPERT: As the Director of the National Paideia Center, Dr. Terry Roberts has a built in audience for his book. He is a recognizable entity in the educational community.
- EDUCATIONAL & CHILD PSYCHOLOGY: This is a hot topic right now, with parents and educators always looking for new ways to engage children in both classroom settings and the home.
- FOREWORD BY HOWARD GARDNER: Howard Gardner is the developmental psychologist best-known for this theory of multiple intelligences presented in his groundbreaking book Frames of Mind. He is the Hobbs Professor of Cognition and Education at the Harvard Graduate School of Education.

Dr. Terry Roberts is a former high school English teacher. He is practicing scholar of American Literature and Cultural Studies, with a strong penchant for the classics. He is fascinated by the social and intellectual power of dialogue to teach and to inspire. Terry is the lead author of several Paideia publications including The Power of Paideia Schools, The Paideia Classroom, and Teaching Thinking through Dialogue.

His debut novel, A Short Time to Stay Here, won the Willie Morris Award for Southern Fiction, and his second novel, That Bright Land, won the Thomas Wolfe Memorial Literary Award as well as the James Still Award for Writing about the Appalachian South.

Raw, witty, and deeply revealing, That's Mental is a laugh-out-loud funny, literary romp about the inappropriate, devastating, and strangely amusing side to being mentally ill.

In her debut collection of essays, comedy writer Amanda Rosenberg breaks down myths and misconceptions about what it means to be a millennial with mental illness in a darkly funny, and relatable way. That's Mental dives head-first into the overlooked and offbeat issues of mental illness, shedding light on topics that are off-limits, uncomfortable, and at times, downright embarrassing.

This book details every challenging and awkward stage of Amanda's journey with mental illness and how she manages what she calls her, "garden variety crazy." These pages are a look at the everyday realities of mental illness; covering the stuff that therapists don't, like how to make your therapist cry and how to respond to your friends' quick and easy cures for depression. That's Mental is an uproarious and brutally honest confession from someone who's been there, done that, and decided to write the book she wished existed before she lost her mind.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- MENTAL HEALTH: People are seeing the necessity and importance of having conversations about mental health more than ever before. That's Mental breaks down myths and misconceptions about what it means to be a millennial with mental illness in a darkly funny, but relatable way.
- NOTABLE AUTHOR: Rosenberg is an editor for Slackjaw, a satirical online publication with over 74,000 subscribers. She has been published in McSweeney's, The Hairpin, GOOD, Anxy Magazine, Quartz, Huffington Post, The Mighty, POPSUGAR, Thought Catalog, and The Slant. Her blog has 30,000 subscribers and has garnered well over a million views since she started it five years ago.
- LAUGH-OUT-LOUD FUNNY: As an award winning comedy author, Rosenberg infuses comedy into even her most gut-wrenching confessions. Rosenberg says, "I'm writing this book because it's important, because people need a laugh, and because it's the book I wish I'd read before I lost my entire mind. It's everything that drives me crazy about being crazy!"

Amanda Rosenberg is a British comedy writer based in San Francisco. She writes about mental health, pop culture, and tech. She's an editor for Slackjaw, a satirical online publication with currently 63,000 subscribers. Amanda has been published in McSweeney's, The Hairpin, GOOD, Anxy Magazine, Quartz, Huffington Post, The Mighty, POPSUGAR, Thought Catalog, and The Slant. When she's not writing for other people, she's writing for herself – Amanda has 29,000 subscribers to her Medium blog, which has garnered more than a million views since she started it five years ago. --COLLEEN OAKLEY, AUTHOR OF BEFORE I GO AND CLOSE ENOUGH TO TOUCH

Nate and Annie Forester are faced with every parent's worst nightmare when their three-year-old daughter, Madeline, is hit by a car right before their eyes. In the aftermath of her death, the distance between them grows. Nate just wants to move on and return to some version of normal, while Annie finds herself stuck in the quicksand of her grief.

Josh, 22 years old – third party to the nightmare – was behind the wheel on the fateful day Madeline ran into the middle of the street. Unable to stop thinking about Nate and Annie, has started to stalk them, thinking up ways to approach them and apologize. One morning, he is sitting in his car, in front of their house, when he sees Annie leave, suitcase in tow. Hours later, he witnesses Nate in a frenzy of worry. His wife has disappeared and he is left only with a vague note.

Tiny follows the harrowing journeys of Nate, Annie, and Josh—three people unwillingly tied together by tragedy. There is Nate, staying strong on the surface, but slowly losing his mind as he faces the suspicions of Annie's family and the police in the wake of Annie's disappearance. There is Annie, attempting to start a secret brand new life in a 100-square-foot house in the middle of nowhere. And there is Josh, who desperately wants forgiveness and, ultimately, finds himself responsible for reuniting the people whose lives he changed forever.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- POWERFUL AUTHOR: Kim Hooper is the author of the hit debut People Who Knew Me (St. Martin's, 2014) and has a strong fanbase for her stories about the resilience of the human spirit.
- UP LIT: Hooper's writing is strong enough to make her a dominating presence in the currently popular "up lit" movement.
- TINY HOUSES: This is the first fiction title to be set in a tiny house community and explores the motivations behind this odd lifestyle choice.

KIM HOOPER is the author of People Who Knew Me, hailed as "refreshingly raw and honest" by the Wall Street Journal. Tiny is her third novel. She lives in Southern California with her husband, daughter, and a collection of pets.

COMPARISON TITLES:

The Unexpected Everything: 9781481404556

Scripted Unscripted is a charming YA contemporary about family ties, compromise, and finding what it takes to be authentic while surrounded by carefully-crafted fantasy. Animal lovers will embrace Ellie's clever canine references and the story's stance on pet rescue, and the Hollywood settings will delight teens with dreams of making it big." -Jill Baguchinsky, author of Mammoth

Ellie Quinn has spent most of her sixteen years behind the scenes, helping her father manage a crew of four-legged movie stars. Although she longs to be acknowledged as an animal trainer in her own right, she often gets stuck babysitting actors' personal pets and is known around the studio as "the dog sitter for the stars."

When teen megastar Kate Montgomery's sidekick gets fired while filming a pilot, Ellie is forced to temporarily fill-in. The producers seem to be enamored with Ellie—and so do Kate's two love interests on the show, "it boy" Logan Canfield and brand-new actor Cam Alvarez—causing trouble on and off the set.

Now Ellie must decide between living the drama in front of the camera or behind it. If she quits and the pilot fails, she and her father will have to close their failing business and move to her grandfather's lettuce farm. But if she stays on the road to stardom, it could mean losing the boy she's fallen for—and herself—in the process. Can she save the TV show and her father's business without losing everything else?

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- Popular Teen Fiction: Touching on the popular themes of self-discovery, coming of age, and young love, Scripted Unscripted tells the story of a young girl faced with tough choices, but what is she willing to sacrifice? Can she save the TV show and her father's business without losing everything else?
- Pet Appeal: A teen novel written for dog lovers, Scripted Unscripted uses the comic relief and unconditional love that only dogs can provide to help Ellie make it through the ups and downs of navigating a life in Hollywood.

KRISTINA MIRANDA writes novels about empowered girls in fun situations that usually include a dog or a horse, and a worthy crush. If she's not writing, she's probably cheering wildly at a soccer game or taking in a new foster dog. The best job she's ever had (other than writing) was as a bilingual Spanish/English Immersion teacher for recently immigrated children in San Jose, California.

She currently resides in sunny South Florida alongside her husband, two children, and a pack of adorable rescue dogs.

Explore all of the murder, madness and mayhem in Ancient Rome during the reign of the mad emperor, Caligula.

In this book about Rome's most infamous emperor, expert author, Stephen Dando-Collins' chronicles all the palace intrigues and murders that led to Caligula becoming emperor, and details the horrors of his manic reign and the murderous consequences brought about at the hand of his sister Agrippina the Younger, his uncle Claudius and his nephew Nero.

Skillfully researched, Dando-Collins puts the jigsaw pieces together to form an accurate picture of Caligula's life and influences. Dando-Collins' precise and thorough examination of the emperor's life puts Caligula's paranoid reign into perspective, examining the betrayals and deaths he experienced prior to his time in power and the onset of a near-fatal illness believed to have affected his mental-health.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- MURDER, MADNESS, MAYHEM: Stephen Dando-Collins' new book will chronicle all the palace intrigues and murders that led to Caligula becoming the most infamous roman emperor, using his acclaimed easy-to-read style to create a fast-paced, factual account that entertains, informs and surprises.
- EXPERT AUTHOR: Stephen Dando-Collins has written nine books about ancient Rome, and is considered a world authority on Rome's legions. That reputation has been enhanced by Legions of Rome, the groundbreaking definitive guide to the imperial legions.
- MODERN LESSONS: Dando-Collins uses the research and evidence found in the engrossing story of Caligula to shed some enlightening insights into the issues surrounding today's political climate.

STEPHEN DANDO-COLLINS is the award-winning author of 40 books, including children's novels and biographies. Many of his books have been translated into foreign languages including Spanish, Italian, Portuguese, Dutch, Polish, Russian, Albanian and Korean. Considered an authority on the legions of ancient Rome, his most recent work on the subject, 2012's Legions of Rome, was the culmination of decades of research into the individual legions of Rome.

TASK LYST

A Novel

Scott Hylbert

Elliot is a struggling musician who is trying to piece together enough cash every month to keep his dream of performing alive while also paying his rent. That's when he discovered the new app TASK LYST. As a service provider, he sets his own hours, his funds are delivered covertly in bitcoin and the rates continue to grow...but so does his suspicion over the type of tasks that he is being asked to complete. Is the anonymous nature of app-based freelance work enough to abate Elliot's suspicions...and conscious?

Meanwhile, the glossy new Task Lyst corporation is looking for start-up capital and perhaps an extra way to make the app profitable, by assisting the government in spying on users. Alice Seeger is a smart and beautiful executive who once had a promising future in Silicon Valley, but a few bad investments have put her on the edge of being fired and saddled with a lifestyle that she can no longer afford. At first glance, Task Lyst seemed like an app to pass on...until she discovers it's dark underbelly which makes it more appealing financially while also being an enormous legal liability. She must test her own professional judgment against her morals in determining at what price she finds her own success.

This gig-economy thriller takes a look at the on-demand service industry, and it's shady possibilities. Apps have become all-encompassing in our fast-paced modern lives and their utility is undeniable. In this gripping thriller, we follow the many sides, shades and shadows of the app economy and test the question: how far is too far?

KEY SELLING POINTS:

"This is a journey you won't want to miss." Gregg Hurwitz, New York Times Bestselling author of the Orphan X series.

Austin, a struggling screenwriter living in LA, is transported to the medieval city of Galiana, where he is charged with murder. He is suddenly transported back to LA and sets off in search of the only book written about the medieval kingdom. But Austin is not the only one interested in the book — Serge Orosgo, a powerful billionaire and family friend, wants the books so badly that he threatens to kill Austin if he doesn't find it. Realizing Serge and his family are on an evil mission, Austin struggles to stay alive and find the book before it gets into Serge's hands.

His search is continually derailed, however, because Austin has no control over his passage between the two worlds and keeps suddenly returning Galiana. The city had just been taken over by the evil Lord Iron, and previous queen Elinda had been sent to a different kingdom for her protection. As Austin befriends a human-faced rat and the lovely Lady Betheray, he learns that he must find the Queen's talisman and return it to the Emperor in order for the Queen to return.

THE YIN-YANG DIET

For Balanced Nutrition, Health and Harmony

Ken Babel, CN

The Yin-Yang Diet is a modern, scientific approach to balanced nutrition based on the ancient Asian concept of Yin and Yang. Yin and Yang describe how opposites or contrary forces are interconnected, interdependent and complimentary. The book explains the Yin or Yang nature of foods and nutrients and how they affect our constantly changing body chemistry. A diet that is too extreme in either Yin or Yang invites disease. A diet that is balanced in Yin and Yang creates metabolic health and harmony.

The Yin-Yang Diet includes recommendations for adaptogenic tonic herbs. Yin tonics help with the accumulation of energy and moisture and are nourishing, moistening, cooling or anti-inflammatory. Conversely, Yang tonics help us utilize energy. Yang herbs are activating, drying, warm or hot. They are the sexual, athletic tonics, which stimulate metabolism, build muscle, reduce body fat and strengthen bones and joints.

ROOT CAUSE

A Novel

Steven Laine

CAN YOU IMAGINE A WORLD WITHOUT WINE?

Corvina Guerra is a flying winemaker who dreams of one day settling down in her native Italy on her family's vineyard. On a visit to a vineyard in Italy, Corvina makes a startling discovery: Phylloxera, a menacing plant louse that devastated vineyards in Europe more than a hundred years ago, has infested the vines.

The deeper Corvina and Brian search, the more they become convinced that Universal Wines holds the answer to everything, and the harder they pursue their investigation the more surprises pile up for both of them.

In spite of devastating consequences, Corvina and Brian vow to continue their investigation and do what they can to contain the spread of the infestation – but time is running short and they always seem to be a step behind. Unless they can find a way to stop the Philomena – vineyards around the world will be ruined for decades; potentially causing the collapse of the wine industry. Can Corvina and Brian get to the root cause and save the international wine industry from ruin?

From the author of the critically-acclaimed debut People Who Knew Me comes the story of one man's determination to abandon his will to live.

Jonathan Krause is a man with a plan. He is going to quit his advertising job and, when his money runs out, he is going to die. He just has one final mission: A trip to Japan. It's a trip he was supposed to take with his girlfriend, Sara. It's a trip inspired by his regrets. And it's a trip to pay homage to the Japanese, the inventors of his chosen suicide technique.

In preparation for his final voyage, Jonathan enrolls in a Japanese language class where he meets Riko, who has her own plans to visit her homeland, for very different reasons. Their unexpected and unusual friendship takes them to Japan together, where they each struggle to make peace with their past and accept that happiness, loneliness, and grief come and go—just like the cherry blossoms.

Haunted by lost love, Jonathan must decide if he can embrace the transient nature of life, or if he must choose the certainty of death.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

HAG

A Novel

Kathleen Kaufman

High above the sea, hidden in the rocky Scottish cliffs, something stirs. Far from the prying eyes of normal folk, an ancient female force has set the wheels in motion for a long line of descendants. But to what end?

Spanning centuries of human history, these daughters of the lowland hag, the Cailleach, must navigate a world filled with superstition, hatred, violence, pestilence, and death to find their purpose. With pasts half remembered and destinies denied, their parts in the eerie family history must play out in series of fevered dreams that feel all too real and curious incidents that must surely be dreams. And with each passing generation, the waves crash against the shore, and the Cailleach awaits a homecoming that will bring everything full circle.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- NOTABLE AUTHOR: Kaufman wrote the highly-praised The Lairdbalor, and has an academic background in language and literature education.
- MAGIC AND OCCULT: Readers are obsessed with magical themes and the history of witches, featured here through strong female protagonists.

A revival preacher spreads the Holy Spirit as well as illegal spirits in this Prohibition-era novel.

Jedidiah Robbins is a man on a crusade. From town to town, his Gospel train rides the rails of 1920s Appalachia, spreading the Good News with his daughter and a loyal group of roustabouts in tow. But Jedidiah's traveling revival company has a secret: in addition to offering the gifts of the Holy Spirit, it also delivers spirits of another kind. Prohibition is in full swing, but The Sword of the Lord train keeps the speakeasies in the towns it visits in business by providing the best that mountain stills have to offer. While beyond the gaze of federal agents, the operation eventually runs afoul of an overzealous small town sheriff and a corrupt judge, setting in motion a series of events that could land them all in chains. Told with haunting lyricism, this is the story of a preacher full of contradictions, a man for whom the way is never straight and narrow. It bends like the river, a river that leads him in the paths of a different brand of righteousness—and perhaps even to salvation.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR: Winner of the Thomas Wolfe Memorial Literary Award for That Bright Land, the Willie Morris Award for Southern Fiction and Sir Walter Raleigh Award for A Short Time to Stay Here.
- REGIONAL: Appeals to public intrigue of stories set in rural Appalachia.
- MASTERFUL STORYTELLING: Cross-over appeal to secular and religious audiences, with mythical and allegorical elements, such as the personification of Death.

TERRY ROBERTS' direct ancestors have lived in the mountains of Western North Carolina since the time of the Revolutionary War. Among his forebears are prominent bootleggers and preachers but no one who, like Jedidiah Robbins, combines both preoccupations.

His debut novel, A Short Time to Stay Here, won the Willie Morris Award for Southern Fiction, and his second novel, That Bright Land, won the Thomas Wolfe Memorial Literary Award as well as the James Still Award for Writing about the Appalachian South.

Born and raised near Weaverville, North Carolina, Roberts is the Director of the National Paideia Center and lives in Asheville, North Carolina.

MAMMOTH

A Novel

Jill Baguchinsky

The summer before her junior year, paleontology geek Natalie Page lands a coveted internship at an Ice Age dig site near Austin, Texas. Natalie, who's also a plus-size fashion blogger, depends on the retro style and persona she developed to shield herself from her former bullies, but vintage dresses and designer heels aren't compatible with digging for fossils.

But nothing is going to dampen her spirit. She's exactly where she wants to be, and gets to work with her hero, the host of the most popular paleontology podcast in the world. And then there's Chase, the intern, who's seriously cute, and Cody, a local boy who'd be even cuter if he were less of a grouch.

It's a summer that promises to be about more than just mammoths. Until it isn't.

When Natalie's paleontologist hero turns out to be anything but, and steals the credit for one of her accomplishments, she has to unearth the confidence she needs to stand out in a field dominated by men. To do this, she'll have to let her true self shine, even if that means defying the rules and risking her life for the sake of a major discovery. While sifting through dirt, she finds more than fossils—she finds out that she is truly awesome.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR: Jill Baguchinsky is the winner of the 2011 Amazon Breakthrough Novel Award for Spookygirl: Paranormal Investigator.
- INSPIRING FEMALE ROLE MODEL: Mammoth's Natalie is a body-positive role model who is as brainy as she is fashion-forward. Nerds and fashionistas alike can rejoice: Natalie is an unapologetically awesome heroine, you'll want to be her friend!
- HIGHLY RELEVANT: Mammoth touches on a couple of the hottest topics taking over phone and TV screens right now, the Body Positivity movement and women in STEM. This book pushes the status quo on who's allowed to excel in both fashion and science, making it the perfect read for young females (and males) everywhere.

Narcisa: Our Lady of Ashes: 9780062354990

Scab Vendor: 9781681629155

Picking up where Jonathan Shaw's critically-acclaimed Scab Vendor: Confessions of a Tattoo Artist left off, Homeward Bound resumes the story of Cigano, the tattoo man. Cigano continues his full-body tattoo work on a young acolyte, Jaco, who eagerly soaks up his tales. Homeward Bound continues charting the amazing course of a life measured in extremes and all the singular people, exotic places, and outrageous events that shaped it into a survivor's tale of epic proportions. In its pages, Shaw takes the reader deeper than ever before, not only into the bizarre recesses of his extraordinary mind and incredible adventures, but also into the strange and magical process of memoir writing itself.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- NETWORK OF CELEBRITY INFLUENCERS: The son of jazz legend Artie Shaw and Hollywood actress Doris Dowling, author Jonathan Shaw has a rich matrix of connections, from Johnny Depp to Debbie Harry to Iggy Pop.
- BESTSELLING AUTHOR: Jonathan Shaw's previous novel, Narcisa, was on the Amazon bestseller list for six consecutive weeks.
- GENRE-BENDING: Combined elements of Shaw's experiences and rich imagination create what editors refer to as a "quasi-memoir."

"Jonathan Shaw's words, work, life, lives, deaths, rants, rage, hilarity and taste rank with the best of 'em." —JOHNNY DEPP

"Jonathan Shaw is the great nightmare anti-hero of the new age."

—IGGY POP

"The grunge of Bukowski... The teeth-grinding momentum of the Beats." —KIRKUS REVIEWS

For decades, JONATHAN SHAW was a world-renowned celebrity tattoo artist. Over the course of his well-documented career, he was one of the most infamous and influential tattoo men on the planet. Described by Iggy Pop as "the great nightmare anti-hero of the New Age," Shaw's client list included names like Johnny Depp, The Cure, The Velvet Underground, The Pogues, The Ramones, Marilyn Manson, Jim Jarmusch, Joe Coleman, Johnny Winter, Kate Moss, Orlando Bloom, Tupac Shakur and the notorious Great Train Robber, Ronald Biggs. Jonathan Shaw is still one of the most respected names in the tattoo profession today—despite having retired over 15 years ago from an industry with an absurdly short memory—an industry he was instrumental in pioneering.

Answers life's inescapable question:
"What to eat?"

I THINK, THEREFORE I EAT
The World's Greatest Minds Tackle
the Food Question • Martin Cohen

"The worst thing about food science, the elephant in the room, is that it's not just the opinions that are changing—but the 'facts' themselves shift too."

Did you know that the great philosophers were the original foodies? To eat or not to eat? That's an easy question to answer. But what to eat? That's a deep and profoundly difficult one. Doctors and nutritionists often disagree with each other, while celebrities and scientists keep pitching us new recipes and special diets. No one thought to ask the philosophers—those rational souls devoted to truth, ethics, and reason—what they think. Until now.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- NOTABLE AUTHOR: Editor of The Philosopher, one of the world's oldest philosophical magazines, Martin Cohen is also Visiting Research Fellow in Philosophy at the University of Hertfordshire (UK) and co-author of many successful books.
- ON-THE-GO "SNACK READING": The ingenious term coined by the author presents current scientific data in short, accessible chapters for those who feel too busy for heavier reading.
- IRRESISTIBLE AND ENGAGING: A great introduction to the philosophy of food for those curious about the big ideas behind everyday food issues and debates. The reader is invited to be an active participant in the great debate of what to eat.

"Cohen's suggestions are delicious and furiously contemporary, as the Inspectors of the Michelin Guide also once put it, writing about my own restaurant." —JEREMY LAZE, Chef at La Villa Eugène, Caen

MARTIN COHEN is a writer, editor and reviewer with an international reputation for explaining complex issues which cut across subject boundaries in a clear and entertaining way. He is a Visiting Research Fellow in Philosophy at the University of Hertfordshire (UK) as well as Editor of The Philosopher, one of the world's oldest philosophical magazines with a tradition of writing "philosophy for all." He has also been a contributing writer for The Guardian, The Daily Telegraph and The Independent, and has written many successful books, including 101 Philosophy Problems which has been translated into 20 different languages and sold over 200 000 copies worldwide.

—THE NEW YORK TIMES

"What a fun and educational book! I can't wait until every page gets spotted with chili from the simmering pots in my kitchen."

—ROBERTO SANTBAÑEZ, author of Rosa's New Mexican Table

JANE BUTEL is the leading international authority on the cuisine of the American Southwest and Regional Mexican cooking. Known for her clear, easy to understand recipes and culinary instruction—she has been recognized as the "Best in the US" by Gayot.com and one of the four best Cooking Schools in the World by Bon Appetit magazine. She has authored 23 cookbooks, including many best sellers, hosted four television shows and national radio shows, and conducts hands-on cooking schools and culinary tours.

"I always have wanted to use [neurotheology] to embrace Judaism to see how far one might take it to address important issues and ideas in Jewish thought." —author Andrew Newberg

The topic of "Neurotheology" has garnered increasing attention in both the academic, religious, scientific, and popular world. However, there have been no attempts at exploring more specifically how Jewish religious thought and experience may intersect with neurotheology. The Rabbi's Brain engages this groundbreaking area. Topics included relate to a neurotheological approach to the foundational beliefs that arise from the Torah and associated scriptures, Jewish learning, an exploration of the different elements of Judaism (i.e. reform, conservative, and orthodox), an exploration of specifically Jewish practices (i.e. Davening, Sabbath, Kosher), and a review of Jewish mysticism. The Rabbi's Brain engages these topics in an easy to read style and integrates the scientific, religious, philosophical, and theological aspects of the emerging field of neurotheology.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- BESTSELLING AUTHOR: Andrew Newberg is the Bestselling author of How God Changes Your Brain (Ballantine, 2009), and Why God Won't Go Away (Ballantine, 2001). He has presented his work at scientific and religious meetings throughout the world and has appeared on Good Morning America, Nightline, ABC's World News Tonight.
- PIONEER IN HIS FIELD: Director of Research at the Myrna Brind Center of Integrative Medicine at Thomas Jefferson University Hospital and Medical College, Dr. Andrew Newberg is considered a pioneer in the field of neurotheology.
- CUTTING-EDGE: Throughout his career Dr. Newberg has been deeply involved in the study of mystical and religious experiences, one of the newest hot topics in both the science and religious communities; gaining the interest of National Public Radio, and the nationally distributed movies, What the Bleep Do We Know? and Bill Maher's movie, Religulous.

ANDREW B. NEWBERG is Director of Research at the Myrna Brind Center of Integrative Medicine and has published over two hundred articles, essays and book chapters. How God Changes Your Brain, and Why God Won't Go Away.

GOSPEL IN MINIATURE

Meditations for When You Have a Minute

Martin B. Copenhagen

Short, sweet, and relatable 1-page devotionals for when you have a moment.

Witty, wise, and powerful meditations on the New Testament are presented in the perfect form for readers with busy lives who sometimes find that there is not enough time in the day to focus on their spiritual well-being. Martin Copenhagen feels their pain and has packed this volume full of insight into the teachings of Jesus that anyone, no matter how busy, can find the time to digest, reflect on, and enjoy. In addition, a scripture and a prayer accompany each of the 140+ lessons, the distilled results of decades of spiritual scholarship and teaching.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- AUTHOR PLATFORM: Author, pastor and president of Andover Newton Theological School, Martin Copenhagen has a built-in readership of more than 30,000 subscribers to his popular e-publication, StillSpeaking Daily Devotional. Martin has also authored several books and is a prolific voice in the Christian community.
- DAILY INSPIRATION: With more than 140 thoughtful reflections drawn from the author's own experience of the goodness of God's grace these meditations for when you have a moment can be read anywhere at any moment.
- BELOVED SCRIPTURE: Offering encouragement through some of the Holy Bible's most beloved scripture, these meditations focus on the heart of the Gospel and gift of God's glory.

MARTIN COPENHAVER is the president of Andover Newton Theological School and an ordained minister in the United Church of Christ. Copenhagen has authored several books, including Living Faith While Holding Doubts (Pilgrim Press, 1989; revised 2003) and To Begin at the Beginning: An Introduction to the Christian Faith (United Church Press, 1994; revised by Pilgrim Press, 2002). Most recently, he wrote Jesus Is the Question: The 307 Questions Jesus Asked and the 3 He Answered (Abingdon Press, 2014), and Room to Grow: Meditations on Trying to Live as a Christian (Eerdmans, 2015). A graduate of Dickinson College, Copenhagen received his Master of Divinity degree from Yale University Divinity School. Martin is an Editor at Large at The Christian Century and a contributor to numerous other periodicals. He is also a member of the Writer's Group, which produces written resources for the United Church of Christ, including the StillSpeaking Daily Devotional.

OVER 40,000 COPIES SOLD.

Quietly annoying and tenacious Sheriff John Le Brun has earned a reputation for solving wickedly complex crimes, from his home town of Brunswick, Georgia to London, England. Now retired, he finds himself mysteriously hired to solve the 1908 murder of the owner of a high-priced Manhattan brothel. The client's letterhead indicates J. P. Morgan. The Titan of Wall St. denies its validity but himself hires Le Brun to not only solve the crime but also expose the impostor.

As John peels away layer upon layer of facts, he realizes that he is exploring the police-protected vice of prostitution, which is a source of livelihood for one out of every three hundred women in New York City. Le Brun discovers a connection on St. Simons Island, where he holds a membership to an exclusive club. The island was the locale of the last illegal U.S. importation of African slaves. Now history may be repeating itself, for the purpose of sex slavery.

What does it mean to become a Jewish woman? This growing up business isn't always what it's cracked up to be: It can be complicated and scary and seem impossibly hard. With all the choices and challenges before her, how does a girl become a young Jewish woman?

The JGirl's Guide is a first-of-its-kind book of practical, real-world advice using Judaism as a compass for the journey through adolescence. This newly updated and expanded survival guide for coming of age explores the wisdom and experiences of rabbis, athletes, writers, scholars, musicians and great Jewish thinkers.

YOUR WORD IS FIRE: SECOND EDITION

The Hasidic Masters on Contemplative Prayer
Arthur Green and Barry W. Holtz

ISBN: 9781683366706

PRICE: $16.99

CATEGORY: Religion / Judaism / General

PUB DATE: September 2017

TRIM SIZE: 6 x 9

The power of prayer for spiritual renewal and personal transformation is at the core of all religious traditions. Because Hasidic literature contains no systematic manual of contemplative prayer, the texts included in this volume have been culled from many sources. From the teachings of the Hasidic Masters, the editors have gleaned "hints as to the various rungs of inner prayer and how they are attained." Through advice, parables, and explanations, the Hasidic masters of the past speak to our own attempts to find meaning in prayer.

In this new and updated second edition, explore the surprising Jewish and other religious connections to chocolate in this gastronomic and historical adventure through cultures, countries, centuries and convictions. Rabbi Deborah Prinz draws from her world travels on the trail of chocolate to enchant chocolate lovers of all backgrounds as she unravels religious connections in the early chocolate trade and shows how Jewish and other religious values infuse chocolate today.

With mouth-watering recipes, a glossary of chocolaty terms, tips for buying luscious, ethically produced chocolate, a list of sweet chocolate museums around the world and more.

THE DOCTOR WILL SEE YOU NOW

Recognizing and Treating Endometriosis

Tamer Seckin, MD

"In a world where information is everywhere yet answers are hard to come by, Dr. Seckin offers comfort and guidance."

—LENA DUNHAM

ISBN: 9781681621128

PRICE: $19.99

CATEGORY: Health & Fitness / Women's Health

PUB DATE: October 2017

TRIM SIZE: 5.5 x 8.5

Endometriosis materializes when the endometrium—the tissue that lines the inside of the uterus—sheds, but does not exit a woman's body during her period. Instead, it grows outside of the uterus, spreading to organs and nerves in and around the pelvic region. The resulting pain is so physically and emotionally insufferable that it can mercilessly dominate a woman's life. The average woman with endometriosis is twenty-seven years old before she is diagnosed. It is one of the top three causes of female infertility. The pain it emits can affect a woman's career, social life, relationships, sexual activity, sleep, and diet. It is incurable, but highly treatable. Unfortunately, though, it is rarely treated in a timely manner, if at all, because of misdiagnoses and/or a lack of education among those in the medical community.

Earthing introduces readers to the landmark discovery that living in contact with the Earth's natural surface charge—being grounded—naturally discharges and prevents chronic inflammation in the body. This effect has massive health implications because of the well-established link between chronic inflammation and all chronic diseases, including the diseases of ageing and the ageing process itself.

They were both born in the nineteenth century in humble circumstances—Helena Rubinstein in an orthodox Jewish household in Kraków, Poland, Elizabeth Arden on a farm outside Toronto. But by the 1930s, they were bitter rivals in New York, the rulers of dueling international beauty empires that would forever change the way women thought about cosmetics, salons, and wrinkles. This riveting biography brings these two celebrated women to life, revealing the ruthless drive and innovative business strategies that took each to the top. Along the way, it offers an intriguing look at their personal idiosyncrasies (Rubinstein collected art, Arden racehorses), their checkered marriages, and the rarefied social milieu in which they both traveled.

Can a person literally die of loneliness? Is there such a thing as a "cancer personality"? Drawing on scientific research and the author's decades of experience as a practicing physician, this book provides answers to these and other important questions about the effect of the mind-body link on illness and health and the role that stress and one's individual emotional makeup play in an array of common diseases.

An international bestseller translated into fifteen languages, When the Body Says No promotes learning and healing, providing transformative insights into how disease can be the body's way of saying no to what the mind cannot or will not acknowledge.

Jim Bouton, FORMER MAJOR LEAGUE PITCHER, is now a writer, businessman, motivational speaker, and ace pitcher for a semipro baseball team near his home in Teaneck, New Jersey.

The beloved baseball classic now available in paperback, with an updated epilogue by Jim Bouton Ball Four was first published in 1970, it hit the sports world like a lightning bolt. Commissioners, executives, and players were shocked; Sportswriters called author Jim Bouton a traitor and "social leper." Commissioner Bowie Kuhn tried to force him to declare the book untrue. Fans, however, loved the book. And serious critics called it an important social document. Today, Jim Bouton is still not invited to Oldtimer's Days at Yankee Stadium. But his landmark book is still being read by people who don't ordinarily follow baseball. For the updated edition of this historic book, Bouton has written a new epilogue, detailing his perspective on how baseball has changed since the last edition was released.

"This is a marvelous expansion of the best memoir of a fighting soldier south of the Mason-Dixon Line we have." —KEN BURNS, producer of the PBS documentary The Civil War

COMPANY AYTCH

Sam R. Watkins

ISBN: 9781596528406

PRICE: $21.99

CATEGORY: Health & Fitness / Alternative Therapies

TRIM SIZE: 6 x 9

In celebration of the 150th anniversary of the Civil War: The definitive Civil War classic as Sam wanted it revised complete with his edits, new perspectives, authoritative text, and images of his changes. Company Aytch has reigned as one of the most memorable and honest depictions of the American Civil War since its original publication in 1882. Sam R. Watkins's firsthand account of life as a Confederate soldier eloquently captured the realities of war, the humor and pathos of soldiering, and the tragic, historic events in which he participated. Although there have been other versions of Company Aytch published, this is the first with new material and revisions by Sam Watkins himself. Featuring over forty images, including his own pencil-marked edits, this volume combines the ageless text with Sam's intended revisions a treasure for lovers of history, academia, and Civil War enthusiasts alike.
