

mellemgaard

Books from publishing house
mellemgaard

Aug. 2016—Jun. 2017

THE INNER BATTLE

ERIK FRANDSEN

ISBN 978-87-7190-314-0

246 pages • Retail price 249,99 DKK

Superintendent Jakob Bojsen and his team is called to the nursing home Old Rest. The technicians with PP in charge are on their way. A murder awaits. More enters the scene and a motive can be felt throughout the air.

We encounter many destinies in this crime novel. Small-Kaj from the guard firm, Snitching-Benny from the City House in City West. The journalist Kurt Berthelsen from the local daily. Not least, we follow Amir from Aleppo in his quest for refuge in Europe.

The Inner Battle is the second novel in the series about Jakob Bojsen.

GAUMJAN

ALLAN ERIK MORTENSEN

ISBN 978-87-7190-310-2

280 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

Carl Bramming grew up with his two brothers in a family where drinking and violence was part of every day life. In his adult life, he tries to live normally without the ghosts of his past. After several tragic events, he is left with no one but his beloved but also unbalanced brother Samuel. When Samuel is tortured and murdered by people from the underworld, Carl is left with an inner struggle. Should he live the normal and quiet life he has always wanted or should he avenge his brother?

LURIAN

ANDRIAS ANDREASEN

ISBN 978-87-7190-303-4

424 pages • Retail price 299,95 DKK

In the story of Lurian, we follow a true serial killer's doings from his cold and neglected upbringing in the 70's and down his path of life towards a precipice of blood and tears and a murderous need that only becomes harder and harder to tame as he moves further towards the edge of darkness.

Concurrently with a growing amount of bodies are found across the country, the police chase intensifies on catching the murderer who, despite of the growing pile of evidence against him, stays invisible for the enquiries.

Lurian is Andrias Andreassen's masterful portrayal of the mind of a serial killer whose motives are solely the desire to kill. It is a scary read which leaves one with a sense of horror and dismay as the story is as horrifying as the real world plays out. The novel incorporates elements of both the hardcore American and more psychological Scandinavian genres.

THE BRONZE RING

POUL ERIK LARSSON

ISBN 978-87-7190-251-8

418 pages • Retail price 289,95 DKK

Marcus Falck and his team of skilled investigators in the Department of Offenses Against the Person are faced with two mysterious cases of murder. Three almost skeleton like bodies of two women and a young girl are by coincidence found buried in the Bronze Ring, a village from the Bronze Age placed in the idyllic Dageløkke.

Review by Bogfidusen: ★★★★★

"Poul Erik Larsson has once more written a good and solid crime novel filled with thrilling excitement and speed and complications."

POISON

HENRIK JERSILD

The successful business MagnuMed is suddenly the victim of continuous hacking attempts against its databases and the business' secret of success is at stake. The attacks becomes increasingly intense and murder becomes part of the every day for MagnuMed. Frank pursues a passionate relationship with the younger Maj-Britt meanwhile he still has to get the security breaches under control. Is it her who is behind the nightmare? Poison belongs in the same category of genre and style as the popular Danish crime TV-show Follow the Money.

ISBN 978-87-7190-090-3

210 pages • Retail price 199,95 DKK

LITTLE MARTHA

BENTE WILLADSEN

A young mother is discovered to be murdered in her home and her small girl has disappeared. A valuable doll vanishes from a museum and a young painter holds an exhibit where one painting in particular generates attention. These events are linked to each other and the two smart girls, Fie and Grit, decides to figure out what's going on and who the murder is without the knowing of the police. A small pin will play a key role.

ISBN 978-87-7190-135-1

202 pages • Retail price 199,95 DKK

THE DAY AFTER THE MUSIC

TOM KENNETH JENSEN

ISBN 978-87-7190-127-6

194 pages • Retail price 199,95 DKK

A man discovers the body of a murdered young girl in an abandoned car on a field the day after the Roskilde Festival and he anonymously tips the police about after he has supplied himself with the victims' jewelry. Vice superintendent Bent Rugaard has just returned to work after a mental meltdown following the death of his daughter when he and his team must deal with the murder case that only gets worse and worse as the investigation progresses.

The story that takes place in and around Roskilde changes between the murder mystery and Rugaard's battle to come back for real while his wife's health deteriorates.

Review from Krimi-cirklen.dk: "It is a thought provoking and thrilling tale. Is recommended!"

WITH EVERYTHING YOU HAVE

TOM OXAGER

ISBN 978-87-7190-284-6

214 pages • Retail price 199,95 DKK

After several months in a coma in a private hospital in Switzerland, Asber Bjørn finds himself slowly coming back to life.. The National Commissioner of the Danish Police, who has pronounced Asger dead a long time ago, gets in trouble when he has to explain the press and the public why one of the police's most legendary leaders is very much alive. A mighty storm forces a bunch of thieves and veterans to take an involuntary visit to the limestone cave of Mønsted. In Sweden, the thug Sixten rages and he and his helpers steals with everything they have and they are tough to nail.

DEAD GIRL WALKING

KAJ HANSEN

Kim saw his high school sweetheart Elina get beaten to death. Or half death, because nine years later she reappears into his life. In school they had a somewhat turbulent relationship and he has felt guilty since the murder because he couldn't prevent it. The reunion tears Kim's world apart and leaved him wandering through feelings, crazy ideas, and Elina's criminal adult life where he is sucked into complicity.

Review from Krimi-cirklen.dk: "[...] the story is different in a good way and worth reading."

ISBN 978-87-7190-066-8

308 pages • Retail price 259,95 DKK

THE BUTTERFLY

JÜRGEN KLAHN

Homicide detective Jesper Frank has other plans than solving the murder of the beautiful Kirsten Vedell. The press covers a home robbery and still, Frank finds it difficult to fully engage. He is permeated with a thirst for revenge against the car thief Iver Kingo who he finds liable for the fate of his colleague, Christina Lundgaard. Christina, whom Frank has had a relationship to in secret, is in a wheelchair with a bullet wedged in her brain. Then Kingo's name appears in connection to the murder Frank's instincts awakes but with help from the women in his life, the car thief has gotten away from Frank before. Revengefulness mixes with jealousy as Frank makes the painful realization that both blur his judgement. The line that separates revenge from justice is fine and the same goes for the line between friend and enemy. Frank figures out far too late who he can trust and who will stab him in the back.

ISBN 978-87-7190-212-9

334 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

WHEN ANGELS FALL SILENT

KNUD BYRJALSEN

When Angels Fall Silent is a story about what can be the cause to a human losing its humanity – temporarily or permanent. A well-functioning young architecture student, Concha, and a less well-functioning young Irish-English biker, Kieran, fall independently of one another in disfavor with a powerful ex-Rumanian Securitate-gangster. One reacts defensively to the threat and the other one reacts offensively with calculated retaliation. This is the frame work for two parallel stories that slowly converges throughout the book into a culmination where their destinies will be sealed.

ISBN 978-87-7190-257-0

524 pages • Retail price 369,95 DKK

23:59:00 – ONE MINUT TO MIDNIGHT

JAKOB MUNKHOLM

Spring, 1984. An episode at the border in Berlin evolves into a highly escalating conflict between NATO and the Warsaw Pact. Denmark plays a crucial part in the defense of Western Europe and while the fronts begin to move in the world, the Danes prepare for the worst-case scenario.

23:59:00 – One Minut to Midnight is a counterfactual thriller that takes its starting point in the real world Cold War and – through the eyes of young Danes – explores the build-up to a new devastating world war: the nuclear apocalypse.

Review from Excitedreading: "You can't help but to get carried away in the era and the unreal when the author is an excellent and convincing story teller, inside and out."

ISBN 978-87-7190-079-8

496 pages • Retail price 299,95 DKK

THROUGH THE TUNNEL

BENTE SONN

Hanne is a nurse in the district psychiatry. We meet her in her interaction with colorful patients and co-workers as she is about to participate in the course “Gestalt therapy and interpretation of dreams. Retrieve the repressed and be free”. The course becomes too relevant when, during a park renovation, an old and hollow willow is cut down and the discovery of skeleton remains of a baby that disappeared from Hanne’s hometown 35 years ago is discovered. Trying to solve the case, Hanne uses techniques from the course to retrieve her own repressed experiences.

ISBN 978-87-7190-330-0

530 pages • Retail price 299,95 DKK

FOREIGN FIGHTER

FRANK JENSEN

With starting point in his own experiences as operative chief of the Danish Security and Intelligence Service, Frank Jensen provides us with a disturbing view into the nature of terrorism as he depicts the complicated intelligence work that is behind the secret operation against Islamic State among others.

A young, Danish Muslim, Hassan, has travelled to Syria along with a friend to fight with Islamic State. There, he not only loses his friend but also the belief of the justifiable in Islamic State’s fight. Back in Denmark, he is recruited by the Danish Security and Intelligent Service, trained as a secret agent, and is sent back to the Middle East to infiltrate Islamic State as there are information out there about planned terrorist attacks in Europe, and Hassan needs to find that information.

ISBN 978-87-7190-429-1

352 pages • Retail price 299,95 DKK

THE NIGHT CONCEALS THE LIGHT POUL ERIK LARSSON

A young couple buys an old house in the outskirts of Lave Woods. The house was built in 1779 by a man who was convicted and sentenced to death for a murder which one later found out that he did not commit. Rumor has it that the old owner appears from time to time. When the young couple moves in they quickly discover that something is terribly wrong. Meanwhile, a 17-year old girl disappears without a trace and not long after Commissaire Marcus Falck and his competent staff is on the case as they chase a gruesome and ruthless murderer who finds the victims on selected pubs and night clubs in the Northern part of Zealand.

ISBN 978-87-7190-412-3

392 pages • Retail price 299,95 DKK

SHADOWS

MORTEN BUSCHMANN

The Omar-case. Two men are shot, four police men are wounded, and the terrorist dies in a shoot-out with the police's task force. But was Omar a lone wolf? The Danish Defence Intelligence Service receives information on foreign backers and several terrorist networks in the country. Meanwhile, Annesofie Gundelach has issues on the home front. Something points to her youngest daughter, Josefine, having friends in the gang environment of Nørrebro and one morning, her and her boyfriend receives an unannounced and unpleasant visit from three masked men. Ex-boss of the homicide department John Milner offers his help. But suspiciousness arises and spreads to several extremist groups and the case has severe consequences for Gundelach's family and colleagues.

ISBN 978-87-7190-368-3

332 pages • Retail price 269,95 DKK

LONE WOLF

JES VESTERGAARD

ISBN 978-87-7190-312-6

144 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

Within the same three months, unexplainable accidents happen to cyclists from the Maler Quarter, one being fatal. The police chief has left the unusual case to the young commissaire Jens Olsen. As time goes by without any significant results, insecurity and unsureness sneaks in on him. He doesn't think they are getting anywhere. Have they missed something? Is he out of his league?

Lone Wolf is the sequel to Murder for an Artist which was the authors' first crime novel. The two books can be read independently of each other.

CHASING A MONSTER

ESKE HOLM

ISBN 978-87-7190-539-7

328 pages • Retail price 259,95 DKK

Chief of the Homicide Department Laila Oppenheim declares a war on the trade of women. A sex worker is found dead – presumably liquidated. “She will be forgotten in a matter of minutes. Should we leave her and the case alone or should we send a strong warning signal to the sex mafia and his monsters?” Her people choose the latter and the hunt for pimps and traders starts and leads Oppenheim and two colleagues to Bucharest and the Black Sea. Drama unfolds and Oppenheim finds herself a victim of her opponent, the monster. Her revenge is fatal.

THE MAN IN THE GARDEN

JENS JØRGEN HANSEN

In the nameless Danish town in the middle of Jutland – for some it's like Herning, for some it's more like Varde – Madsen scrapes a living. War traumas based in his deployment for the Danish Defence haunts his mind despite the experiences being years in the past. Late one night, a local businessman tries to hire him to investigate a case of cheating. Madsen has his doubts but is convinced.

Review by Finn Hansen, Krimi-cirklen.dk: "A 'hillbilly crime'! Recommended for all hillbillies, allotment people, and everyone else!"

ISBN 978-87-7190-131-3

226 pages • Retail price 219,95 DKK

THE ROCKERS IN THE GARDEN

JENS JØRGEN HANSEN

Madsen wants nothing else but to live a peaceful life in his allotment garden, but he is a man under pressure. The economy is rough, his recollections of war worsens his nightmares, the local authorities are threatening to shut down and move the allotment garden's society, and some of his friends run into trouble that calls for clever solutions. So, when attorney Hammergren offers him a job to protect a young man that is a member of a motorcycle club, he accepts. The work will keep him afloat financially for a while.

Rockers in the Garden is the sequel to The Man in the Garden – a new, intense, action packed crime novel.

ISBN 978-87-7190-469-7

246 pages • Retail price 219,95 DKK

GLUG

JØRGEN HEDEGAARD

In this book, you will meet the police officer Glug who in his retirement contemplate on his many disturbing and thrilling experiencing of 38 years in the police. These experiences are thrown together in a pot and turned into a colorful and tasty dish filled with exotic and aromatic spices which will make you feel full without having overeaten. In the end, you will be served a desert that will contain a surprise, completing the adventure.

ISBN 978-87-7190-457-4

138 pages • Retail price 169,95 DKK

BLOODY DIARY

BENT HARDEVRIG

Dark thoughts run through the pages of 15-year old Emilie's diary – thoughts and assumptions that turn her world into luring un-comfort as the members of her family falls, one by one, in the bloodiest way. The center of attention is an old, gothic villa build on a heavy crypt of which the past arises through the foundation. A universe surrounded by black paranoia.

Review by Bookeater: "Bloody diary is great for a rainy day where you need a little mysery. I'm a fan! The end hit me like a meteor and I am still in shock about how it all turned out!"

ISBN 978-87-7190-428-4

142 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

VIGILANTISM

NIELS KLINGENBERG

After a series of brutal killings on Muslims, the tensions between ethnic Danes and Muslims are at its peak and it increases as when gang members kill a member of the Danish Parliament who is critical of immigration. Chief commissaire David Levin and his team from the police's homicide department are on the case. The investigation, that takes place in the extreme-right and Islamic environments, turns out to be one of the most difficult and personally most traumatic cases of Levin's career. But just as the end seems near, the one thing that everyone is afraid of happens – an Islamic terrorist attack. As a light from a clear blue sky.

ISBN 978-87-7190-417-8

388 pages • Retail price 269,95 DKK

IN THE DARK

BRIAN STAUNBERG

CIA-agent Tom Newman is called back to the CIA headquarters in Langley to meet deputy director Collins regarding his brother's passing. Shortly after his arrival he is contacted by Santini, an old colleague. Soon he realizes, that nothing is as he thought it was. A drama where everyone has something to hide unfolds. Before Newman knows he is involved in a traitorous fight to find the truth. The nerve-racking hunt takes him from America across Cyprus and in the end Israel. But who can he trust in a world where everyone has their own agenda and deception is the new normal?

ISBN 978-87-7190-239-6

382 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

SOUVENIRS FROM THAILAND

MOGENS LYHNE

The rich 61-year-old doctor Martin Fønss is happy living the single life – right until he travels to Thailand and falls in love with the sex worker Noi who is half his age. It turns into a dramatic story told by Martin himself and a line of other people. A story about the many aspects of sexuality and conflicts through generations and cultures. About ruthless gangsters and greedy relatives. About an inheritance that has to be shared, two women escaping their lives, and a pair of children that refuses to give up although all odds are against them.

Librarian statement: “Novel with a lot of intriguing dramas.”

ISBN 978-87-7190-355-3

542 pages • Retail price 299,95 DKK

A DESK IN TRØJBORG

BENT IVERSEN

A Desk in Trøjborg is the old story of the young man who comes to the city to make his way through life. The city is Aarhus and the young man is a student. He is at the racing tracks and at Palmehaven, he is at bars and the university. He meets others. But most times, he spends at his small study chamber on top of a block in Trøjborg.

The novel is set in the 1970's. Before computers and cell phones but with just the right music.

ISBN 978-87-7190-356-0

142 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

OCTOBER DANCE

THOMAS NIELSEN

ISBN 978-87-7190-304-1

218 pages • Retail price 199,95 DKK

The Danish man born in the 1960's was supposed to do better than his parents. He grew up in a so called welfare state that gave him opportunities his parents never had. And a new way of living in the homes were created with equality. What happens? He ends up as a second-generation divorced dad. He is supposed to be the good lover, the loving dad, successful on the job market. He is supposed to be forever young. He is supposed to be 'fit'. He runs an ironman. He defines himself by pushing the boundaries of his own limitations.

FREE CORPS AND FRUNDSBERG

BJARNE CRONFELD

ISBN 978-87-7190-294-5

278 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

Jens Peter Leon Jensen's life was not a normal life. He was trained as a carpenter in 1934 and right after that, he served his 2 years of duty at the Funen Life Regiment in Odense. He married Agnes in the summer of 1937 and went to Hamburg to find employment. He applied to the Free Corps Denmark and was in Demyansk. In July 1944, he joined I SS Panzerjäger Abteilung 10 and participated in the famous battles under the Allies' operation Market Garden in Holland. Along with his friend Poul Helmuth, he was captured by the Americans on May 8th, 1945.

A HALF MOON

JONAS H. VAN ZAANE

When diplomacy fails and the war erupts, Joran's, Verona's, and Marcus' lives are changed forever. Although they live in different countries, the war will affect all of them and each one must start their new lives in realms marked by fear. But even in hopelessness and darkness, light finds its way and when Marcus figures out that it is not too late to stop the war that challenges all nations, he decides to do just that. But the ancient dangers await in the shadows and they refuse to let the light in. In the east, Sinja finds something that not only will change her life but all around her.

ISBN 978-87-7190-313-3

274 pages • Retail price 198,00 DKK

STEP BROTHER

ISABELLA J. STEINICKE

Emma's parents have split up and Emma has lived alone with her mother for as long as she remembers. When her mother's boyfriend, Per, moves in along with his son, Hans, it means, that Emma's life changes radically. Emma and Hans grow close. Despite their parents' warnings to stay friends, Emma and Hans are attracted to each other. Their feelings stay secret until they realize that they have to face the facts and its consequences.

ISBN 978-87-7190-215-0

283 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

RAIN FALLS FOR YOU

THOMAS WIVEL

The author notes: This book is about memories and recollections I've always wanted to tell. I have put the different flashbacks into a wide arrange of lyrical notes, analyzes, poetry, humor, short stories, and philosophical, essay-ish, parts, that altogether provides a composed picture of yours truly. I have experimented with the framework and storytelling and it has resulted in a mix of freaky and mysterious which I hope, will be both enlightening and entertaining. Enjoy!

– Thomas Wivel, Danish comedian and author

ISBN 978-87-7190-332-4

160 pages • Retail price 159,95 DKK

THE CITY UNDER THE SKY

NIELS BREDAGER

Have you ever attended a church service and experienced, that your thoughts started circling everything other than the priest, the sermon, and the hymns? That is exactly what happens for the narrator in The City Under the Sky. His thoughts wander when he sits in the church one Sunday morning against his own will.

Librarian statement: "The City Under the Stars is well written, catchy, and a great book, that talks about the trivial day to day life, the deviations, and life in a small town. Definitely worth my recommendations!"

ISBN 978-87-7190-051-4

364 pages • Retail price 259,95 DKK

SOMEONE LIKE REBECCA

MARIANNE THYBO SØGAARD

Someone Like Rebecca is about two women aged 29, who each deal with their own lives. The main character, Rebecca, is the nice and politically correct woman who lack excitement in her pretty monotone every day. Linda is her opposite – a beautiful and fashionable woman who seems like she has it all figured out. When Rebecca catches her boyfriend cheating on her, her world is turned upside down and she lose faith in men. The two friends find themselves somewhere in their lives where the biological clock is ticking while they can't seem to figure out the game of love.

ISBN 978-87-7190-088-0

482 pages • Retail price 269,95 DKK

THE EROTIC BANKER

DANIEL ASH

The main character of the book, banking executive Erik Holt, who has a remarkable sexual drive, is tangled into a series of erotic escapades which eventually he will have to pay for. During a burglary, he acts in a way that seems to wake up the tabloid press and their indignation. He is obviously followed by the paparazzi and the press and it changes his life as he struggles to keep a normal day to day life. In the pipeline, as a society and family outcast, he gains new experiences about human behavior and slowly loses the last of his faith in the good in people.

ISBN 978-87-7190-253-2

493 pages • Retail price 279,95

CANAGER

ROBERT J. NEDERGAARD

Immediately after the end of World War II, the chase after the German regime of horror's worst criminals is initiated. They have gone into hiding to avoid trial and hard punishments. But it is also the story of righteous people and their initiative to find the criminals. One of these people were Simon Wiesenthal in the Austrian city Linz, but there were many other who helped society in the difficult hunt on the Nazi's killers who had run and hidden in faraway locations such as Canada.

ISBN 978-87-7190-399-7

259 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

A STRANGER CROSSES YOUR PATH

CHRISTIAN AZIZ

A Danish sailor and soldier embarks on a mission in 2008 on board the HDMS Absalon to fight the piracy along the Horn of Afrika. Concurrently, a Somali fisherman lets himself recruit as a 'sea savior' in the hope that justice will be fulfilled. Two men on the verge of colliding in the Indian Ocean. Where will their paths cross and when it happens, who is the stranger?

A Stranger Crosses your Path is a thrilling story about Denmark as a nation in war and the most failing state in recent times: Somalia. About deployed soldiers and their joys and privations. About making important decisions in one's personal life while being far away from the fields of where it takes place. And about a whole country's history of pain collected in the fate of one man.

Review in Fyens Stiftstidende: "The novel's Somalian trace is extremely well put together."

ISBN 978-87-7190-101-6

270 pages • Retail price 259,95 DKK

A MAN GOES TO CANADA

BJARNE HATTING

A story about a family dad who's had enough with the everlasting fighting in the family. He does what most other people in his situation only dreams of. He leaves the family one day where his wife is at work and the kids are at school. He wants to go to Canada and start a new life.

ISBN 978-87-7190-126-9

306 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

CONNECTED VESSELS

KIM RISØR

What was supposed to be a harmonic, exotic, round trip in Thailand for the reflective Kevin and his family on the occasion of his 50th birthday turns into a nightmare when their youngest daughter is kidnapped. The family needs Kevin's old, harsh, friend Jack who is somewhat of a ladies' man. Jack has always lived out his desire for freedom to the fullest but he carried a secret and a desire for another life. The drama that unfolds is replaced by thoughts of fundamental things that moves us all as humans, when we are trying to find a meaning with life and make choices for ourselves and as part of something greater.

ISBN 978-87-7190-098-9

338 pages • Retail price 269,95 DKK

FROM MURMANSK TO MESSINA

PETER DØSSING

The kind, down to earth, hauler, Åke Nilsson, from Kiruna, Sweden, is well away on his retirement life when he is offered one last ride with his old truck. Which seems fine to him. After moving on from his wife's passing two years ago, he is starting to get bored. So, it does not take long before he says yes to the final trip which will provide him with the opportunity to sell his for-carriage and his trailer.

The story describes Nilsson's experiences as a tourist throughout Europe, visiting several interesting cities and places, from Sicily all the way up to Lapland.

ISBN 978-87-7190-080-4

224 pages • Retail price 199,95 DKK

IN THE WAKE OF THE WALL

PETER DØSSING

The story describes the historic events that led to the fall of the wall which reflects the downfall of the Communist regime and the iron hold the Russian empire has held on the Eastern European countries for 45 years. The development leads Kurt to see the opportunities for business by establishing contacts in the former countries of the Warsaw pact.

ISBN 978-87-7190-247-1

126 pages • Retail price 169,95 DKK

HALF IN THE SHADOWS

HANS KRISTIAN JØRGENSEN

In the time of the occupation of Denmark, the German plagues city people could – shamed, yet a bit proud – throw the following sentence into the face of the people in the country side: We lived in the shadows of the master race while you were having a vacation! It is true that the occupational power raged the town's people in the bigger city of Denmark, but resistance and battles for freedom grew both in the city and in the country side and it resulted in acts of violence, liquidations, and reprisals from the Germans everywhere in the small kingdom.

ISBN 978-87-7190-145-0

264 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

THE PRICE FOR STRUGGLING

RANDI FAXØE RIISOM

The Price of Struggling – a family chronicle and sequel to Deroute.

World War II is raging through Europe. Kræsten is still held captive by the Germans. No one hears anything from him and the German have almost caught up with the two other brothers. In Kærby, the old citizens see ghosts after the fatal arson and a murder happens at Lundegaard. Iben and Tobias' battle for their daughter Rosanna continues. Iben's sister Asta refuses to give up Rosanna and she bad mouths Iben.

Librarian statement: "Well told family chronicle which also is a story about the movement from country to city in the period the chronicle covers."

ISBN 978-87-7190-129-0

307 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

KOSOVO

NIES HENRIK HOOGE

On many levels and in great detail, Kosovo portrays the historic events around the change of the century which led to the birth of the nation of Kosovo. The novel takes us behind the scenes in abstruse environments in a time where the eyes of the world were set on the Balkans.

The optimistic message of the book is to support freedom movements and the battle for human rights everywhere in the world when you are backed with international humanitarian law and acts on compelling humanitarian considerations.

Librarian statement: "A highlight is the detailed portrayal of a dramatic environmental campaign with a Danish environmental activist which involves a lead smelting work.

ISBN 978-87-7190-136-8

566 pages • Retail price 349,95 DKK

THE MAN IN BETWEEN

PETER A. BERG

Henrik is unemployed and now has time to think back on his life, right from when he was just a kid and his dream of becoming a pianist, over his life as a mule in a not very successful marriage, and then finding a new partner. He lives in the present and the past but is forced by his kids and new life to think ahead: His future son in law wants to be deployed with his friends in the Life Guard in Afghanistan and his step son, Rune, comes out as gay and wants to marry someone his own family does not want him to marry.

Review from Litteratursiden: "A great debut novel from someone we'd like to hear more from!"

ISBN 978-87-7190-002-6

336 pages • Retail price 259,95 DKK

MEMENTO VIVERE

TITKEN TOFT

ISBN 978-87-7190-125-2

148 pages • Retail price 159,95 DKK

What happens when a girl without past meets the boy without a future? Karoline wakes up with severe brain damage after a year in coma. She does not remember how she ended up in the hospital, who she was, or what a hospital is. Thorbjørn, her boyfriend before the accident, had moved on but now, he is determined to get her back into his life. Karoline tries to piece her life and soul back together with the help of her friend Sally, her caring nurse, and Emil, a patient in treatment for brain cancer and an overly honest roommate at the hospital.

Review from Bogrummet: "It was fun and deep at the same time and there is no doubt in my mind that Titken Toft master the playful side of language as well as its many nuances and facets."

THE PAPER TIGER

HENRIK STAMER HEDIN

ISBN 978-87-7190-240-2

376 pages • Retail price 259,95 DKK

A Westerner is taken prisoner by an opium smuggler who wanders around the Golden Triangle of the border country of Thailand, Laos, and Burma with his private army. We are in the beginning of the 1980's. The prisoner succeeds in escaping under dramatic circumstances. But who is he? Where is he from? And where does his escape take him through the river of life and destiny?

The answer to these questions take us through three wars, three continents, and deep into a love story that culminates in a downfall of chaos and disgrace for a state.

Review from Kommunist.dk: "Hedin knows how to put together an action packed plot and certainly masters the Danish language."

THE PILGRIM

VILLY BANG-MADSEN

On his pilgrimage on the Camino from Saint-Jean-Pied-de-Port to Santiago de Compostela and to Fisterra, the Pilgrim meets many quirky existences as he tells his unusual stories. No one believes him: He is a liar, they say. Unfortunately, he has to lie to be believable and a little lie can make events or experiences plausible.

Librarian statement: "Well written historical novel which force is the great portrayal of periods."

ISBN 978-87-7190-082-8

148 pages • Retail price 150,00 DKK

THE FATHER OF THE SHAMAN

HANS MØLLER
KRISTENSEN

Vibeke is an adventurer. In her search for shamans and the shaman's wisdom, she travels alone to Siberia and Mongolia. She lives with the nomads in Mongolia, spends a winter out there in the freezing cold, rides with the bear hunters, and becomes a shaman herself. She meets her father in Copenhagen but suddenly she disappears. Her father, a doctor, sets out to find her. He follows her traces through London to the far East. He lives with the people by the river Mekong, among partisans in Burma and Laos, and is imprisoned in Bangkok. He escapes but is now chased by police and gangsters.

ISBN 978-87-7190-083-5

368 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

CRY OVER WASTED LIFE?

MICHAEL SLOT PIHL

The author Noah arrives to Bornholm where he is to finish his novel. A great sorrow has brought him in a writing- and personal crisis that keeps him looking backwards. In Gudhjem, Noah meets to interesting women with different baggage. The two women awake a hope and curiosity and Noah starts walking through the winding yet beautiful path of life. Cry Over Wasted Life? Is a novel about three human destinies. It is a reflecting and wise novel about the good life and love.

Review from Bogrummet: "The style of writing is easy going without being superficial."

ISBN 978-87-7190-122-1

220 pages • Retail price 220,00 DKK

HEAVEN'S DAUGHTER

MARIA KALLIPOLITIS

16-year-old Maja is hospitalized at the Children- and Youth Psychiatry Ward. Demons are chasing her and she is possessed by an angel. When supernatural events occur at the wars, Maja decides to get to the bottom of it. Because is she, or is she not insane?

ISBN 978-87-7190-487-1

406 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

SICKNESS

ANDREAS SKYDT JACOBSEN

An unexplainable epidemic has raged through Europe and Africa and has left millions of people dead. Neither doctors nor scientists can prevent it from happening but suddenly the epidemic evolves and moves on from the European mainland. Almost concurrently, a bloody civil war has caused havoc throughout the continent and each side have lost hundreds of thousands of people. The war ends but Muslims are deported to either Africa or the Middle East. The man-made madness is the new world, a split society, a world full of hatred a fresh accounts of loss.

ISBN 978-87-7190-219-8

472 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

OUTSIDE THE LOVE ZONE

JOSEFINE RYE

The year is 2072. The new age has begun. An age, which let humans fight between the light and the dark. Everyone is a passenger on their way to the next train on their life journey which is drive and run by multiple forces. The trains go in all directions, horizontally and vertically and to the dark places of the Earth Zone and the light places of the Love Zone. With them, they carry the mission of helping people get to the right realm. But does it even exist? Outside of the Earth Zone, the cosmically aware follow the passenger's journey to guide them.

ISBN 978-87-7190-171-9

172 pages • Retail price 198,00 DKK

WRETCHED

JØRGEN VANGSTED

Wretched is a novel for the mature reader that won't back down for the politicians and reveals weaknesses of our democracy. The question of what is best, obvious absolute monarchy or undisclosed majority, is posed. We follow two local politicians, one a new arrival with visions, big ideas, and complicated solutions on the city of Assel's issues, while the other was born and raised there and has simple solutions for everything. Both, they have human weaknesses but people judge them differently. It is a polemic, humorous story about the new and transcending ideas can result in.

ISBN 978-87-7190-179-5

276 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

THE WORLD'S HAPPIEST COUNTRY

JOACHIM NOVICKI NIELSEN

The small kingdom has once more been named the happiest country on Earth, but what will that help the businessman Gert who is governed by a fool of a boss? The young Maria has only received humiliation from being beautiful and sweet. But like Gert, she has a plan. So has Saed. He wants to be a Dane because he was born there although his parents are from Iran.

ISBN 978-87-93420-29-8

198 pages • Retail price 199,95 DKK

FREE FALLING ARTIST

JAKOB PARK

A failed author in a midlife crisis looks back at his life where he time and time has rejected love. The author Philippe Léfèvre realizes while deconstructing his faded youth, that he has evolved into a narcissistic misogynist who ends up spending his old age without children, alone, and left behind. Memories and reflections come forward and leaps backwards between the wonderful heights of the erotic, the artist's illusory universe, and a growing self-hate which he tries to keep down through great amounts of Burgundy wine.

ISBN 978-87-7190-456-7

108 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

DEEP ZLEEP

MILLE BRINK

Sean Dewoods' mom left before she was even there. Now, when his father finally dropped the bomb, everything was torn apart and Sean will do anything to avenge his father's many lies. When Sean wakes up in a hospital after an accident, his confusion won't end. The air feels strange and the silence is extreme. It turns out, he must fight an all-or-nothing battle for his life.

ISBN 978-87-7190-256-3

266 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

MASKED

ANDREAS HAUPTMANN

Spring of 1861. The poet Theodor Fried Hansen is the star of the times, he is beloved by everyone in Copenhagen and he knows everyone, from Johanne Luise Heiberg to Hans Christian Andersen. He is swimming around in success, money, and women, but everything changes when he meets the young model, Johannes. Together, they embark on a social downfall that leads them to the bottom of society. Now, it is up to the awkward and shy philanthropist Peer Frimand to straight out the story of murder, intrigues, sex, and black mailing.

Masked is a subtle yet exciting novel that portrays the erotic and nerve wracking life of the late Golden Age in Copenhagen.

ISBN 978-87-7190-354-6

310 pages • Retail price 269,95 DKK

THE MONKEY ON THE SHOULDER

KIRSTEN VAUPEL

The Monkey on the Shoulder is about the dilemmas of love and life. The Skagen-boy Victor finds his father who has never acknowledged his fatherhood and he avenges in a devilish way. But the faith throws Nina, an old high school sweetheart, back into his life and her demands make him question whether he can take charge of someone's destiny. Whether he can take revenge without thinking of ethics and morals, and whether he has a duty to use his talents instead of wasting his life on the one-eyed path of revenge.

ISBN 978-87-7190-540-3

266 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

DAYS ON AN ISLAND

RIE OSTED

ISBN 978-87-7190-250-1

318 pages • Retail price 259,95 DKK

The author Anna's boyfriend has frauded and cheated her so to get away, she books a stay on a southern island where there is sun, rest, music, and inspiring lectures about psychology, religion, art, and literature, and pampering with food and wine. Anna is joined by seven other adults with different ages and from different countries. Everyone has their own reason for joining the retreat and for several, something landmark or eye-opening happens. Not even Anna is quite the same when she returns to the mainland after six dramatic days.

Librarian statement: The books is well written, captures the reader, and the story is straight forward. Great to take with you to the beach without it reducing you to stupidity."

GLEAMS OF SUN

HANS MØLLER KRISTENSEN

ISBN 978-87-7190-245-7

332 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

Gleams of Sun is the story of a house. In the house, there are seven apartments and many human faiths. The janitor Henry carries a dark secret. The happy social helper Bodil spreads joy to everyone around her. She is always in love with someone new she meets. The widow Sonja has many children and one is handicapped. She is energetic and diligent but has a hard time. Ingrid, who is getting older, has something she does not want anyone else to find out about. Vera is a single mom and finds love. But not without trouble. In the house there are joys. There are sorrows. Dark clouds pull up but there are small gleams of sun light. The children play in the yard. They will meet good and bad times. That is life.

THE DAY BRINGS

KRISTIAN MASSEY MØLLER

ISBN 978-87-7190-372-0

264 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

Martin tells of his childhood and youth. About later tragedies and failures and downfalls and entry the New Church's monks. About the task Prior Angus bestows him while his traumatized little brother shows up. A task that takes up a fight against the New Church's deceit and power. Against the indifference of today and the many -isms such as Islamism. For Christianity and Danishness. But will Martin be able to step out and in of times? And what will the little brother and the patron bring to the table? Well, and the meeting with the you Danish-Iranian woman, Zainia?

GANGRENE

RASMUS BERTELSEN

ISBN 978-87-7190-265-5

248 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

The year is 1990 and Poland is in the middle of political chaos after the downfall of Communism. One day, Jósef Tewel receives a letter which awakes decades of suppressed pain and it forces him to travel to Denmark. Caught up by the past and a love story that keeps blooming, a journey starts through a collapsing world and a maze of lies.

Gangrene is a novel about guild, political opportunism, and experiences, and it concerns existential experience which arise in the tension field between freedom and force, where the line between executioner and victim is erased.

DATA DEATH

JARNE STEEN NIELSEN

On a hospital in a not so distant future, you work on a science project to get more organs for transplantations. It happens at an organ ward where people who are brain-dead are kept artificially alive. Then, the doctors can harvest the organs whenever sick people need them. The death is set accurately by advanced computers and the new death criteria is called Data Death. In this war, Erik works, a young medical data engineer. One day, a woman is hospitalized at the organ ward. By accident, she has suffered a fatal brain damage.

Review from Krimi-cirklen: "Data Death is Jarne Steen Nielsen's debut novel and he has gotten away with that very well."

ISBN 978-87-7190-051-4

364 pages • Retail price 259,95 DKK

JUST A MAN MORE OR LESS

STIG COLBJØRN NIELSEN

We see a man in the middle of his life. So far, he has lived it without any major changes and now he is near something that would remind you of the classic midlife crisis. An unconscious rebellion against his safe, monotonous, and trivial frame around his life is ignited. The main character lives completely in the moment. All of the people's actions, whether conscious or unconscious, makes a way for his new life, run by him or his surroundings and all of this comes from simple and oh so well-known human desires, drives, and feelings.

ISBN 978-87-7190-415-4

310 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

THE DREAM OF A DANISH PRINCE

HANNE BISTRUP

You say that love can show itself in many ways. So it does in this book where two people fight a brave battle to get through life without taking too many tumbles. It all starts out with childhood dreams and hope for the future but life offers many unforeseen events and many difficult choices. One wrong choice may end in disaster, well, even fatal. No one really knows their own limits of how much they can take before you end up in a place where you might have to give up.

ISBN 978-87-7190-084-2

376 pages • Retail price 269,95 DKK

THE LONG ROAD TO JOANNA

HANNE BISTRUP

The Long Road to Joanna is the sequel to The Dream of a Danish Prince. The story starts with a funeral and ends with a birth. In this book, we get a more in-depth knowledge of Johanne's new family which is very different from the one he came from. The new millennium becomes the start of a new chapter in his life story: New wife, new baby, new home. The common thread in his existence is still his work life which is the lifeline he clings on to.

ISBN 978-87-7190-478-9

222 pages • Retail price 199,95 DKK

FIGMENTS OF THE IMAGINATION

KAREN KORNBECH
LARSEN

Sara has her base in a big city. She is homeless, an addict, and in strong opposition to pretty much everything. She has been called to court, prosecuted for an assault on an old friend. However, the trial is postponed because the witness does not show up. We follow Sara in her time in no-man's-land – between trials. In a dream, she re-experiences her best moments with her grandma and grandpa, out in the country. A sudden impulse makes her try to rediscover her lost childhood. Despite abstinences, hunger, thirst, and cold, she succeeds. But only to realize, that nothing is as it used to be.

ISBN 978-87-7190-400-0

472 pages • Retail price 269,95 DKK

SPIES WITHOUT BORDERS

CHRISTINA EIBERG

Christine Njor travels abroad to work as a shipping agent in her youth. She is quickly recruited by an intelligent agency which she believes is the CIA. She travels to the former East Germany right after the fall of the wall and she is involved in weapon transportation to the war in Yugoslavia. The past catches up on her many years later. Christine goes on a long trip through Europe and the US to help the western countries fighting terrorist threats, but does she help? Is the Danish Security and Intelligence Service for or against her and what powers in Denmark pulls the international strings? Christine has no other choice than to reacquaint herself with the old agent-training while she struggles with her self-worth and a rising anxiety.

ISBN 978-87-7190-413-0

196 pages • Retail price 199,95 DKK

MAYBE FOREVER

MALENE RIPULLONE

ISBN 978-87-7190-442-2

470 pages • Retail price 269,95 DKK

Mille and Marco has been together for 17 years but has reached a dead end in their relationship. The crisis' of the past several years, the everyday life with work, bills, two young daughters, and practical doings steal all their time and they forget themselves and each other.

Despairing and without hope, Marco travels away leaving Mille with their children. He goes back to his family in Italy to reflect on life and whether he and Mille have a future together. Through flashbacks to the summer in Paris where they started a passionate and fiery relationship, Mille rediscovers herself and her dreams. But is Marco a part of them?

Maybe Forever is an intense and seductive novel about great feelings, life's crisis', and about losing and rediscovering yourself.

LOVE YOUR ENEMY?

PERNILLE BERNITT SOMMER

ISBN 978-87-7190-479-6

220 pages • Retail price 220,00 DKK

Trying to understand the Israel-Palestine conflict, Astrid travels to Bethlehem where she meets Ibrahim and Natalie who are both Christian Palestinians. By their first encounter, she is initiated into Ibrahim's life story while Natalie seems to hide something. Astrid is sympathetic towards the Palestinians and does not understand how there even is an Israeli side of the story. When she meets Taly and Mark on the Israeli side of the wall, her views are challenged and she must travel back to Copenhagen without any answer on what she thought she wanted an answer to.

BACK HOME

FREDERIK STRANGE

This is the story of a young soldiers training to war, deployment in Iraq as a commissioned officer and life guard in the Military Police, seeking of insight at the Army Special Forces course, and finding his way back home. The book is about finding a deeper meaning in own experiences and using it in a constructive manner and it serves two purposes: To help current and former soldiers finding their own meaning with their experiences and increase understanding in society for veterans and PTSD, post-traumatic stress disorder, which an increasing amount of current and former Danish soldiers struggle with on a daily basis.

ISBN 978-87-7190-189-4

204 pages • Retail price 199,95 DKK

THE HIDDEN

KASPER VALENTIN

The Hidden is about the tough story of Kasper Valentin, about being 'invisibly sick', about how he handled that no doctors, family, or friends could see that something was wrong with him. It is also the story about how he made life work for him after losing his old life and dreams of the future.

Librarian statement: "Well written and easy to read book about living with a chronic illness."

ISBN 978-87-7190-172-6

216 pages • Retail price 199,95 DKK

A PSYCHIATRY ROUND-TRIP

CAMILLE THELLEFSEN

Camille is a woman of many talents and skills but as a result of a childhood marked by neglect and incest, she has struggled with voices in her head and self-harm for several years. She has been in and out of psychiatric hospitals as well as having many long-term hospitalizations behind her. Today, she lives in a 24-hour a day covered psychiatric sheltered residence, Enghuset in Gistrup, Denmark. Here, she has succeeded in gaining peace. The combination of living in a 24-hour a day covered residence and the set structure of her day, contacts, good relations, a work identity as Kildehuset has offered, has meant that Camille hasn't been hospitalized for three years. By a combining effort, Camille now has a rhythm and structure and a meaningful everyday – and new, healthy friendships.

ISBN 978-87-7190-248-8

196 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

SHE CALLED AND SAID I HAD CANCER

ANNI BAAGØ

How does it feel to be told that you have cancer and how do you get through it?

Through all of the years, you follow the author's thoughts, treatments, check-ups, waves of accept, despair, denial, or the everyday with joy, happiness, family, friends, work, and free time.

The book is easy to read and catching and can be used as an encyclopedia as it covers the six phases one go through when you survive cancer: The diagnosis – the wait – operations – rehabilitation – check-ups – late complications.

ISBN 978-87-7190-295-2

132 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

HELLO, EVERYONE!

ARNE IPSEN

The time after World War II was tough but marked by a common need for culture experiences. Especially through the radio. Perhaps it sounds strange in a time of advanced TV's and iPads. But many Danes born around the 1950's or earlier recalls the joy of the radio and the blossoming of choir song, orchestras, theater troops, and more. The 1950's was the Children's Radio, well, radio in whole's golden age. The children's expectations rose when the clock showed 20 minutes past 4 in the afternoon and the speaker said: "Hello everyone!"

ISBN 978-87-7190-140-5

148 pages • Retail price 169,95 DKK

YOUNG GIRL

METTE BLUHME

The author notes:

I expose myself and write of my flaws, weaknesses, and lack of confidence that throughout my life has left deep marks in the way I see myself and the consequences perception has had. We live in a time where you can't make mistakes or be imperfect – I want to break that tendency so the youth of today has a chance to be themselves. I write about my view on our modern society and the challenges I believe we are facing. I write about love: Love for ourselves, our fellow human beings, our friends and family, love for life and our Earth.

ISBN 978-87-7190-043-9

218 pages • Retail price 199,95 DKK

FROM PRINTER TO FUNERAL DIRECTORNILS JENSEN

The author notes:

My main objective with this book is to tell about my time as a funeral director and to the authentic tales I will add personal anecdotes and stories as well as interviews – from a hospice for instance. The book provides a view into the world of the funeral director – whether it be good or bad. One important matter for me to address is how both small and big churches stand more or less empty. I highlight why I think they are so, how we can get more people into the churches, and not the least: what is the church's role in this and what is the state's.

ISBN 978-87-7190-411-6

164 pages • Retail price 169,95 DKK

IT WILL PASSHANS CHR. MØLLER CHRISTENSEN

A deep depression is a serious illness. Here, it is written how an in all manners normal and well-functioning human being with a good life, a great family, a meaningful job, and good social relations can be hit by severe depression. The tough time during depression is discussed open heartedly and in detail as it describes how a depression can be experienced by the affected and their family. Also, it discusses how it is possible to get through a depression and even how to gain strength from it. It tells about the belief of being able to overcome depression and about how working with preventive measures as well as having faith in one's ability to avoid a new depression.

ISBN 978-87-7190-529-8

108 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

UNHAPPY CHOICES AND OUTCOMES

JENNY SIMELEV

This book concerns a normal family that desperately needed help but instead, was put through the use of power by the system. The system has four lives on their consciousness because of doctors who wrote something about people and labelled them with things that were not true and this has had severe consequences. There are children who has lost their fathers because of the system which is tragic. A mother lost her son to a foster family because of lies and they won't let go of another mom's son because they have the system 100 % on their side.

ISBN 978-87-7190-405-5

120 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

... AND 117 MORE

ULLA DUEHOLM

"No, Ulla, you can't say that! It's too embarrassing. What won't people think? There will be no doubt about what kind of unruly, rude, sassy, and disgusting brat you've been!"

... And 117 More is the sequel to The Story of a Son. The book contain 117 stories about all the people and landmark events from Jutland that there simply wasn't room for in the author's three previous books of recollection.

ISBN 978-87-7190-575-5

540 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

THE BLACK MOON

MICHAEL NÆSTED NIELSEN

ISBN 978-87-7190-474-1

106 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

The black moon is a portentous and forebodingly omen on the sky signaling that something is wrong. The moon foretells of unhappy and hard times ahead for those who sees it. 14-year-old Wolf is in the African country Namibia when the first big war erupts. Only by luck, he evades death when his school is bombed by the enemy. Wolf escapes in panic but gets lost in the desert. He is in imminent danger when he is found by three native boys. Now, who can be trusted as friends and who is the enemy? Maybe Wolf should keep his origins to himself? Are the black boys as primitive as he has always been told at home or will knives and spears be able to compete with guns and canons?

Wolf has to decide which side he is on and his choice will have great consequences for his future.

RAVEN'S SCREECH

KAREN INGE NIELSEN

ISBN 978-87-7190-433-8

378 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

When Sia recovers the entire town of Karstel is in flames and her brother, Liam, is missing. Unknown perpetrators have killed Duke Castor and turned the beautiful summer day into a living nightmare. Suddenly, Sia hears the voice of an injured man calling.

"They have him ... you must get him ... if not, all will die," he whispers with his final breath.

Review from Isas boghjørne: ★★★★★

"All in all, this was a really good book! I love the fantasy genre and Karen Inge Nielsen has done a terrific job writing a great, moving, and thrilling fantasy novel. I can't wait to read the next book in the series because I find it hard to let completely go of Sia and her small family. If you, like me, love the fantasy genre, Raven Screech is definitely something I'd recommend."

THE DEATH SAILOR II – WRECK OF SOUL

NINA ROSENMEIER

The Death Sailor will take you by his claws and if you thought there was a happy ending and the hero's trials were over, then you were naïve. Being connected to a ship like that gives you a vulnerable freedom and what will really happen when a zig zagging will be in conflict with an unfinished code? And if Name's dark omens happens to be true, everything will fall apart. Almost, because we are dealing with a tough and clever gang here, but will they all be able to get away from it with their soul intact? The blood red trees create scars and if you get many, well, then you're done.

Librarian statement: "You will quickly get caught up in the story by the lively language and the action packed plot."

ISBN 978-87-7190-328-7

352 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

DRAGON'S LAND

RY KRISTENSEN

In the Kingdom of Lobes, Hakon rules but evil forces are gathering in the distance and prepares to threat the peace in the Kingdom. Hakon's traitorous brother, Kharn, is gathering a great army of vile orcs, disgusting gnomes, evil humans, deathly dark elves, gigantic mountain trolls, and last but not least fatal dragons that shall secure him the throne. Hakon gathers an army and makes a clever plan to stop Kharn. Along with his captains and a group of the Kingdom's dragon riders he will try to defeat Kharn's army before it gathers and becomes invincible.

ISBN 978-87-7190-475-8

270 pages • Retail price 199,95 DKK

DESTIN II – THE SNOW BIRD

DANNY BILTOFT DAVIDSEN

ISBN 978-87-7190-362-1

242 pages • Retail price 219,95 DKK

Destin has crossed immense danger and saved Maridel from The Red Coats only to see her get kidnapped by Cyril and the Treasure Hunters. Left by himself and in chains on a strange moon, Dustin desperately look for a way to follow his friends but without them or means his chances decrease while the distance to The Lawless and Maridel increases for every second.

Review from Litteratursiden.dk: "This is sci-fi for what it's worth! It's great that there is starting to become more solid and entertaining science fiction from Denmark!"

BLACK SEPTEMBER

CHRISTINA NORDSTRØM
KIRSTEN NORDSTRØM HANSEN

ISBN 978-87-7190-360-7

122 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

Sofie is 15 years old and she suddenly finds herself in the eyes of the hurricane. In the matter of a week everything changes. Sofie's mom is giving in to the pressure. Layer after layer of the family's facade is removed and it leaves them exposed and vulnerable. Sofie seeks help with Nikolaj's best friend Emil and with her friend Julie.

Review of the book: "There is no doubt that Black September nails it as a dramatic but authentic novel. It gets 6/6 stars for the moving story that you can't put down."

THE SPIES AND THE THIEVES IN THE GREY VAN

ANNE METTE ASP

ISBN 978-87-7190-180-1

162 pages • Retail price 169,95 DKK

Niki and Victor tries to help Mads once me as he still feels bad at home. That's why they get closer that they wish to his violent step father and the fact that he's a close friend to the school's janitor doesn't help in any way. Soon, it is unsafe for Niki to attend school.

The Spies and the Thiefs in the Grey Van is the third and final book in the series.

NAVILA

NIKLAS BIRK LEHMANN JENSEN

ISBN 978-87-7190-216-7

214 pages • Retail price 199,95 DKK

A conflict has divided four siblings for thousands of years and the whole conflict is about a mysterious light called Navila. The light is known as the light of life and death but only one of the four siblings is born with the power to control it. After that person has died, the light vanishes from the sky and several years will pass before it reappears. This happens when we are introduced to our main character. At his appointment to gate keeper the light reappears and it sends shock waves through the country.

DIARY FROM ZOMBIELAND

KLAUS FREDERIKSEN

ISBN 978-87-7190-287-7

225 pages • Retail price 219,95 DKK

No one knows exactly when it happened but the Earth has gradually been taken over by zombies. Noah lives alone in Copenhagen and has lost his family during the zombie apocalypse. He decides to go on a road trip through Denmark and document it in his journal. The journal witnesses Noah's battle against the waves of zombies and his struggle for survival. Furthermore, you meet several people who fight for their lives, physically and mentally in a world that has completely changed and where there is no time to feel safe.

Diary from Zombieland is the Danish equivalent to the hit shows The Walking Dead, Fear The Walking Dead, and Z Nation, but experienced through a journal.

THE SINGER OF THE NIGHT

CHRISTINA BONDE

ISBN 978-87-7190-357-7

642 pages • Retail price 369,95 DKK

When Victoria falls in love with the new estate owner she suddenly finds herself in a world full of vampires. She ends up in a dispute that could kill her and she finds herself being in the center of a dangerous game of betrayal and paramount desire. The rescue seems to be coming from ancient mythology that gives Victoria a central role in the vampires' world, but it takes making choices that will tear her apart mentally. Enemies are coming from all sides and fate seems dark.

Who can she trust and how far will she go for love?

Review from Min forestilling om hvad paradiset er: "If you're into blood, violence, stately secrets, and zombies, this books is for you!"

TARA AND THE DANCE OF THE MESMERITES

ISA LEMVIGH CLAUSEN

ISBN 978-87-7190-528-1

256 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

Tara has grown and so has her responsibility. Everyone around her are confident that she will overcome the tough times ahead – whether she want it or not. She is thrown into an adventure with dangerous quests, over human powers, devilish evil, and fantastic creatures.

Tara and the Dance of the Mesmerites takes you on an adventurous journey with equal parts thrills, faith, hope, and love, and it is the third installment in the series about the girl Tara.

The previous book in the series, Tara and the Storm Islands received 5/6 hearts in a review by Danish daily Politiken.

THE WITCH'S DAUGHTER

SABRINA MOSE

ISBN 978-87-7190-486-4

262 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

Alvira is the daughter of one of the greatest witches ever. But Alvira is born without a single ounce of magic in her body. This means, she is a disgrace in the witch world. But when Alvira's mother, Agathe, is burned on the fire, Alvira suddenly becomes in possession of a powerful object that will change her life forever. She is thrown into a whirlwind web of revenge, death, and desire for power, and when her heart stands still for a single moment she realizes, that she possesses so much more than she had ever dreamed of.

Sabrina Mose is the author of The Journey to Santa's Workshop – a completely sympathetic and well told Christmas story, as one library statement says.

THE CHILDREN IN "PALETTEN"

KITI WEIL

The Children in "Paletten" is a true story about three children's trip to the end of the world. Here, they find a paradise far away from today's world of electronics, a simple life in nature where the sea and the woods are the most important of all. The crabs in the sea, the grasshoppers in the fields offer the most wonderful experiences. A small village with only a few shops is much more exciting than all the big shopping centers. Whatever happens in the future these memories will stay deep inside their souls.

With illustrations by Joan Larsen.

ISBN 978-87-7190-525-0

68 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

THE FIRST UNICORN

KATHARINA MALU BACH

This is a lovely little book about differences and acceptance, perfect for reading out loud or as a bed time story. It is about the horse David that lives all by himself in the desert savannah. Therefore, he desperately tries to become part of the crash of rhinos. But that is not that easy as he is too different and doesn't fit in. So, David has to take creative measures to get the rhino's acceptance.

ISBN 978-87-7190-266-2

26 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

THE BOY WHO CHANGED JOBS

ELSE CEDERBORG

When Steffen dies, he is only 8 years old which means he was robbed of the 66 years he was supposed to have. This creates a chaos in Heaven and Hell, first and foremost because he won't accept it and he protests.

The book is illustrated by Niels Hovmand-Hansen, Stregfabrikken.dk

ISBN 978-87-7190-176-4

40 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

THE DINOSAUR KURT

JEANETTE MADSEN

This book contains 10 short, funny, and direct stories, all made by children and for children. Stories that have their own place in the world, not for anyone else, just for the sake of the story, and are easy to pick up and read when you have a moment.

ISBN 978-87-7190-217-4

30 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

EVA AND OLIVER'S SECRET

ELSE LEFMANN

Eva is 9 years old and she does not want to grow up any more. When she is on vacation at her grandma's in a small village, she meets Oliver who is 12 years old. He doesn't want to grow older either. But luckily, he has a recipe. A recipe on how they can maintain their current age. It's a little dangerous but both follow the recipe.

It also gets dangerous when the lumber mill in the village burns for Oliver's best friend, Torben, is accused of starting the fire. Together with Oliver's two sisters, they decide to start a club. A detective's club that will figure out who really started the fire.

Librarian statement: "Well-written, flowing, easy to read language."

ISBN 978-87-7190-197-9

148 pages • Retail price 179,95 DKK

THE BLACKCURRANT BEAST

HANNE BISTRUP

The Blackcurrant Beast is about a child's encounter with the nature and how fantasy and reality sometimes can be confused until children learn the difference. When adults accuse children of lying they forget that children really believe what they are saying. They only know of the lie later.

The book is illustrated by artist Nini Torp.

Librarian statement: "A story in a good, slow tempo that follows the year in the garden through the blackcurrant beast and it poses the question of when fantasy and reality melts together."

ISBN 978-87-7190-185-6

22 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

THE HAIR PECKER'S HAIR CLIP RACE

THOMAS PHILIPSEN

ISBN 978-87-7190-156-6

76 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

In the Seven Mile Forest strange things happen. The Hair Pecker Henry studies beetles in his greenhouse with his best friend, Christian the Crow. The soldier beetles are the most interesting but you don't want to eat them! Another place on the forest, the beetles are performing a beetle ballet in a western style! Here, you will meet Beetle the Kid and Buffalo Beetle. One day Hair Pecker Henry finds some hair clips that a human has 'lost'. Soon, he gallops around on one and the birds of the forest follows his lead! A new sports discipline has been born: hair clip racing!

Review from Eibes bogblog: "My daughter laughed out loud when reading the book and what was especially popular were the songs in the back of the book. Famous children's songs, but rewritten with a bird theme."

THE LION AND THE TIGER

SUSANNE ELISABETH LONGHI

The story takes place in the Big Old Fairytale Forest where our main characters live in a wooden house. Lion and Tiger are always hungry in the morning. What will happen on their hunt for breakfast, will it be spoiled, and who do they meet? Lion and Tiger are a pair of help some animals with great moral standards as we all can learn from.

Review from Din Boganmelder: "My 7-years-old son loved the stories!"

ISBN 978-87-7190-091-0

58 pages • Retail price 159,95 DKK

MUGGI AND HIS THREE MUSKETEERS

SØS BECK

ISBN 978-87-7190-305-8

42 sider • Retail price 149,95 DKK

Enjoy a fairytale with Muggi the horse that tells you about the amazing animal kingdom he encounters on his walks through the nature with one friend on the back and others beside him. He meets the snail with the bass voice and the fly who is just the way he is supposed to be. Muggi and his three musketeers is a story about everything between heaven and earth and about the adventures of Muggi.

A children's book about wishing and hoping and being present in the moment. The book is great for reading out loud and is obvious as a bed time story.

PAN AND THE PEN PRINCESS

IBI-PIPPA
POUL PAVA

ISBN 978-87-7190-182-5

48 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

Pan and the Pen Princess is a classic fairytale modernized. In those fairytales we all read as children, there were always a morale or a description of societal challenges or problems. Pan and the Pen Princess is no different and it stands out as the first children's book in Danish that deals with homosexuality in the fairytale world. The fairytale is easy to read and is especially good at being read out loud for smaller children.

Review from Bogrummet: "Pan and the Pen Princess is without a doubt the most original children's book I've ever read!"

THE PAINTERS AT MARKVEJ

ANNETTE ØSTERGÅRD

The Painters at Markvej tells and opens up to a world enhancing a piece of Danish cultural history for children. The book takes the reader on a guided tour of Anna and Michael Ancher's house and ends with Krøyer's Midsummer Eve Bonfire on Skagen Beach where the entire group of painters are gathered along with the people of Skagen. The Painters at Markvej is an experience to be shared whether it is to be read out loud or for the consumption of one child.

Librarian statement: "A nice little pearl of a book."

ISBN 978-87-7190-141-2

86 pages • Reatil price 189,95 DKK

THE MOUSE FAMILY ON ADVENTURE

EVA LANGE JACOBSEN

"Ouch, my mouse finger!"

A mouse has cut itself on a bottle and another mouse has burned itself on a cigarette bud. Waste from humans give the small mice injuries but now this must come to an end!

Read about the cool mouse children that takes up the battle against trash.

Review from Din boganmelder: "A very positive thing about the book is the many beautiful illustrations."

ISBN 978-87-7190-181-8

52 pages • Retail price 99,95 DKK

BROTHERS MONGOOSE

JULIE SONNE VILSTRUP

Most people know the feeling of being teased or bullied. So does the little, sensitive, dwarf mongoose Ditlev who live in a zoo. When his big brother Didrik teases him, he gets upset. But how do you teach your own brother to be nice? Ditlev gets help from some of the zoo's other animals. This is the story of when Ditlev ran away.

Librarian statement: "A good story with a lot of pretty animal pictures, which I'd like to recommend."

ISBN 978-87-7190-343-0

50 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

THE COOL SUPER ELVES

JOSEFINE GULDAHL

The Elf Valley is located under a giant oak tree deep into the woods, covered in green ivy and beautiful flowers. Yellow coltsfoot, purple violets, blue, yellow, and white anemones, pileworts, primulas, and spring flowers. The Elf Valley is a really nice place to be. All the elves always smile and say hello to each other. They help each other and they are always there for each other. There are always happy days in the Elf Valley!

ISBN 978-87-7190-350-8

70 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

LILLY MEETS HENRY

HENRIK GADE

Lilly is 8 years old and is in second grade. However, she has trouble with anxiety, is sad, and doesn't want to go to school. Lilly would rather just stay at home with her mom. The school chooses to take Lilly out of the class and give her special education. Vita who is a teacher at the school is supposed to teach Lilly. But Vita falls ill so there's a substitute instead. His name is Henry and he is going to teach Lilly in Danish and Math. Henry is a nice teacher and his teaching is very different from any other teacher's. Instead of doing the normal tasks, Lilly has to count oranges and dance in Math class.

ISBN 978-87-7190-453-6

30 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

AUNT RANT

JOHNNY SVEJGAARD RASMUSSEN

Welcome to a universe of rambling rhymes and rhythms filled with remarkable creatures. Among others, meet Aunt Rant, Hannibal the ant, Badulje the pigeon, and Courage the saber-tooth, and figure out whether King Carrot will ever turn orange.

ISBN 978-87-7190-345-4

30 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

DETECTIVES JANE AND SIMON

BJARNE LARSEN

Where does the milk come from?!

Jane and Simon are the best detectives in town. Together, they want to figure out where the milk comes from. On their long adventure the experience many funny, exciting, and interesting things.

ISBN 978-87-7190-458-1

36 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

KATJA KITTY FROM KERTEMINDE

RITA BITSCH

Katja Kitty lives in Kerteminde. She runs her own café where she makes the best toasted rats in town. She keeps an eye on everything that happens in town or by the sea through her binoculars. Katja really wants to snarl like her grandpa so she can scare away the bandits but although she practices every day, she can't seem to figure it out so instead she sings. Everyone in Kerteminde loves when Katja is on the terrace of her café and sings. In this story, Katja goes on an air balloon ride with her friend Sneaky Pete. It is an exciting and instructive day where she realizes, that by helping others, she becomes a much better cat.

ISBN 978-87-7190-299-0

34 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

TAG'S LITTLE HORIZON

LENE LEHNSKOV

Tag is a careful boy who can get lonely because his mom and dad are so busy. Or perhaps, Tag is just shy and have a hard time getting used to kindergarten. The staff are worried about Tag's development and they have a psychologist see at him. She also becomes worried and call in Tag's parents for a meeting. Tag invents Horizon who is secret and invisible. Therefore, it looks like he is talking to himself.

Tag's little horizon is a book for children aged 4-8.

ISBN 978-87-7190-348-5

40 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

TAG GETS A NEW PET

LENE LEHNSKOV

In kindergarten, they said that Tag was lonely. But that is not true at all. He has his invisible friend Horizon with him everywhere. Tag's parents decide to give him a pet. It's a puppy because his mom always wanted one. But Tag is not very happy about the dog and least of all is Horizon.

ISBN 978-87-7190-347-8

44 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

THE ELVES' DANCING

ANNE HEINUNG

Jonas is a 9-year-old boy. He lives a happy life with his family and friends in Copenhagen. His grandpa and grandma lives on Stevns and grandpa is Jonas' best friend. When grandpa becomes sick and passes Jonas goes through a deep grief but he is comforted by angels and elves. They come to him from The Land Between the Stars which is where grandpa travelled after his death. Jonas moves between the magical world and home and he understands, that although grandpa isn't on earth anymore, Jonas hasn't lost him. Grandpa will visit Jonas in his dreams and he will know that they are still connected.

ISBN 978-87-7190-220-4

164 pages • Retail price 198,00 DKK

LITTLE ONION & HAIKU AND TANKA

GITTE DIERNER

Two collections of poetry in one!

Excerpt from Haiku and Tanka

The beach and the sea

A hole in my rubber boot

The water tingles

Sad to see the boy

That walks with his neck bent down

In the green forest

He does not see the squirrel

That runs happy in the tree

ISBN 978-87-7190-085-9

146 sider • Bogladepris kr. 149,95

HAIKU FOR EVERYONE

VIGGO MADSEN

Haiku. Just as stylized as it is sophisticated, it brings great freedom to not only the author but also the reader as far as figurative understanding goes. With origin in the 17th century's imperial Japanese palaces it still manages to activate its readers today. For Viggo Madsen, it is a way of seeing and process the mad house he sees daily through the media as he takes the Japanese verses into the 21st century.

Librarian statement: "Viggo Madsen is one of the great names in Danish poetry and here, he shows he's in great shape."

ISBN 978-87-7190-246-4

40 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

SUPER CARLA AND THE HORMONES

DORTHE OXGREN

A book about the female menopause and hormonal changes by Dorte Oxgren. Women in their 40's and 50's are usually told that they are dealing with stress although it is the hormonal balance that is at fault in the years leading up to menopause. The book does not provide a miracle cure but it offers explanations on what happens in the woman body when the hormonal balance is affected by stress or menopause.

A yoga instructor, a naturopath, a psychologist, a gynecologist, and a hormone therapist offer their advice on what you can do yourself and where you can ask for help.

ISBN 978-87-7190-333-1

164 pages • Retail price 189,95 DKK

WHEN THE MIND CALLS

CHARLOTTE ADSEBALLE DAHL

When the Mind Calls is a step by step guide in the process concerning depression. It offers a descriptive part of the disease, practical and tangible tools to getting through the depression, as well as a philosophical and experience-based part about how you can live your life after a depression. This book applies to those hit by depression and their relatives as well as those who merely seek a greater understanding for it.

Librarian statement: "The book's strength are the great suggestions to how the depressed can change their life in a more positive direction."

ISBN 978-87-7190-364-5

180 pages • Retail price 198,95 DKK

DOES MOM KNOW I AM DEMENTED?

KAREN ZUBARI

After a tough life, Kirsten is hospitalized and diagnosed with Alzheimers at age 58. We follow the family's dilemma when Kirsten's husband insists on taking care of her himself but dies and leaves her helpless. We are there, on the busy hospital, we cry with her when she fails the clock test, and we struggle with her when she is thrown around in the municipal assessment, we experience the great respite care of Arbejde Adlers in the middle of Nørrebro, and we breathe a sigh of relief when she gets the much desired spot at a nursing home on Lolland.

ISBN 978-87-7190-218-1

93 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

FAITH, STRESS AND DEPRESSION

CLAUS SØNDERGAARD

CLAUS OLSEN SØNDERGAARD

Faith, Stress and Depression concludes a hybrid of a biography, non-fiction book, an opinion, and an assessment about how stress and severe depression is experienced. It takes its starting point in the experience of having a perfect life and job – it seems on the outside. The success turns into failure to thrive and years of sick leave. A noticeable work-related stress that evolves in a negative direction and along the companion of mental illness they spiral down to the bottom of life.

The book describes a professional and identity collapse, how stress occurs and evolves and how the brain is affected.

ISBN 978-87-7190-423-9

168 pages • Retail price 195,00 DKK

MY SOUL KNOWS

JANE MEJLHEDE

My Soul Knows consists of a collection of poetic accounts, tales, and personal experiences about transformation. The book is a mirror of the thoughts, feelings, and states you can experience when the world changes drastically because of outside interference or inner choices. The words touches upon boundaries between the magical and the real and it takes its starting point in the author's own life as well as experiences from the many clients course participants she has guided through personal and spiritual processes in the past decade.

ISBN 978-87-7190-403-1

362 pages • Retail price 249,95 DKK

THE LABYRINTH AND THE VIOLET MOUNTAIN

FLEMMING KNUDSEN

The Labyrinth and the Violet Mountain is a gripping and true spiritual account about finding your own path through life. The book entail how we as people can change our destinies through prayer and visualization – the power of the mind. The author encourages us to travel with him through the complicated labyrinth on the eternal journey to the exit – freedom – and underway, we draw parallels to our own way through life's challenges. The story takes us on an interesting journey through all layers of life. Both the sense contingent physical life and the many invisible layers of life.

ISBN 978-87-7190-351-5

380 pages • Bogladepris kr. 249,95

BIRDS IN TREES 4

LARS HOLMSTED

Fold a bird, when Christmas is the word!

24 beautiful birds to fold in paper – easy and ready to decorate your Christmas tree with! From magpies to snipes, from avocet to a giant toucan!

The books will provide hours of fun cut, fold, and weave with just scissors and paper. Birds in Trees presents a charming way of renewing the Danish Christmas traditions, and everyone can join in on the fun. Butter-fingers are only for the unpracticed!

This is the fourth book in the Bird in Trees series, all providing 24 beautiful guides to folding birds with your family in the spirit of Christmas.

Librarian statement: “Birds in Trees is a fun combination of birds and the tradition of folding decorations for Christmas. A great renewal of the more tradition folded Christmas hearts.”

ISBN 978-87-7190-254-9

60 pages • Retail price 149,95 DKK

