Ballet Besties

Yasmine Naghdi with Chitra Soundar
Illustrated by Paula Franco

Pirouette your way into the Shimmer & Shine dance studio!

When Yara joins Shimmer & Shine, a community dance school, she meets lots of other children her age, who are there to either start their training or just for the fun of it. Soon she has a group of ballet besties she loves to dance with.

But then Dame Clougston-Wilmott, their grumpy landlady, threatens to close the studio. Suddenly it's up to Yara and her new friends to keep Shimmer & Shine open!

Will putting on a performance of The Sleeping Beauty awaken the Dame's love for dance? Will Yara have the chance to dance her dream role of Aurora? And most importantly of all, can the ballet besties save their studio?

A fun, inclusive and accessible series that will bring the joy of dance to young readers!

YASMINE NAGHDI is a Principal of The Royal Ballet and has been dancing with the company since 2010, rising to the highest rank of Principal in 2017. Her major roles include Odette/Odile (Swan Lake), Princess Aurora (The Sleeping Beauty), Juliet (Romeo and Juliet) and The Sugar Plum Fairy (The Nutcracker). She has performed all over the world. As a half-Persian dancer who doesn't fit the 'traditional' ballet mould, Yasmine is passionate about showing classical ballet is for everyone.

CHITRA SOUNDAR is a writer and dreamer of many things. As well as writing books, Chitra is a speaker, oral storyteller and toe-dipper in writing for the small screen. Her stories are inspired by her close-knit family, her childhood in India, which was filled with epics and folktales, and her travels around the world. Chitra has performed in literary festivals across the UK, US and many other countries, telling stories and introducing the magic of writing to children everywhere.

Bronte Tempestra

Bex Hogan
Illustrated by Hannah McCaffery

A fun-filled fantasy series starring an unforgettable new hero.

Bronte Tempestra of the Storm Kingdom is taking charge of her own destiny - she will be the first ever princess to become a knight!

But knight school isn't the fun-filled adventure Bronte is expecting - the knights don't seem interested in saving . . . anything. And when she discovers that the Lightning Steeds have gone missing, leaving the Thunder Trolls to wreak havoc across the lands, she knows it's her moment to prove just how brave a princess can be.

Bronte must face down pompous Griffin Lords and bare-bottomed cloud-stealing Gnomes, monstrous HORRORflies and spooky ZOMbits. The future of the entire kingdom is at stake.

It's time for the princess to rescue the knights!

BEX HOGAN has spent much of her life lost in daydreams. Writing her stories down was a natural progression and now she enjoys sharing her time between living in the real world and escaping to her imagination. She is the author of the ISLES OF STORM AND SORROW trilogy, which are YA fantasy adventures set on the high seas. VIPER, VENOM and VULTURE are all out now.

HANNAH MCCAFFERY studied Illustration for Children's Publishing at Glyndwr University and now works as an illustrator and designer. She finds her inspiration from the characters she comes across each day and from rambling through the beautiful Welsh countryside.

Beastlands

Jess French

Cover/map illustrator: George Ermos

An epic fantasy adventure featuring three unlikely heroes, a realm of mighty beasts, and an adventure quest like no other...

The island of Ramoa was once lush and populated with mighty beasts. But now the cities are sparse and tamed and trouble is brewing.

Kayla's beloved animal companion, a rare winged pangron, has been stolen. She's determined to get him back, but to do so, she'll have to journey into the wild Beastlands, where so few dare to go. There she meets Rustus, a young warrior desperate to win his father's approval, and Alethea, a healer searching for a cure for The Scourge, the mysterious disease sweeping across the realms.

As their quests converge, they'll go on an adventure like no other, across the lands they know so little about, leading them to discoveries both great and terrifying. Not least that the beasts they've always been taught to fear might not be so terrifying after all...

JESS FRENCH is a qualified vet with a first class degree in zoology, a naturalist and entomologist. She is also the author of over 20 books for children and the presenter of hit wildlife shows, Minibeast Adventures with Jess (CBeebies), Live 'n' Deadly (CBBC), and Springwatch (BBC). When not studying, teaching or writing, Jess enjoys rock-climbing, kickboxing and playing the saxophone and drums. Jess is also an explorer, adventurer and traveller and has worked in gibbon sanctuary in Thailand, a monkey sanctuary in Bolivia and a dog shelter in India. She currently lives in Norfolk with her family.

The seandraiocht - the Old Magic - isn't remembered like it once was. Its power is fading...

When Rose is entrusted with a powerful stone by a Frost Giant, she is swept into an adventure full of danger. The stone can be used for great good or great evil, depending on its keeper. It leads Rose to discover the magic that runs through all of Ireland. A magic that is threaded together beneath the land: the Silver Road. But the Silver Road is under threat.

Now Rose must keep the stone from falling into the wrong hands and embark on a quest to find its rightful owner and keep the magic alive...

A stunning new fantasy adventure for children, drawing on Celtic folklore. Perfect for fans of Catherine Doyle and Ross Montgomery.

SINÉAD O'HART is a children's author, a children's literature podcaster (she co-hosts Storyshaped, available on all podcasting platforms), and a parent, all of which keeps her busy (but not too busy to read). Get your skates on for the sweetest feel-good, body-positive rom com of the summer!

For sixteen-year-old Ruby, GCSEs are over and summer has just begun, so that means hanging out with her BFFs in the park on their roller skates and having fun. She didn't expect it to mean signing up to run in the Dawson Dash - a 5k race for sporty sixth formers. Because Ruby is NOT sporty. But she really needs to prove her mean brother and even meaner PE teacher wrong about what a fat girl can do.

When Ruby starts to train, she didn't expect that she would need help - nor that she would find it in the cute boy who has just moved in next door. As the two jog through the long summer evenings in south London's parks together, with Ollie only seeing her at her sweatiest and most vulnerable, the last thing she expected was that he might... like her. Or that she could allow herself to like him.

But nothing this summer is working out like she expected...

So when her best friend Adnan begs her to pretend to date him to cover up his new top-secret relationship, Zara is hesitant. This isn't the kind of thing she had in mind. But there's something in it for Zara too: making her parents, who love Adnan, happy might just stop them arguing for a while. She may not be getting her own love story, but she could save theirs.

So Zara agrees and the act begins: after all, how different can pretending to be in a relationship with your best friend be to just hanging around with them like usual? Turns out, a lot. With fake dating comes fake hand-holding and fake kissing and real feelings...

And when a new boy turns up in Zara's life, things get more confusing than ever.

The course of true love never did run smooth, but Zara's love story is messier than most...

Struggling to control his strange new magic powers, seventeen-year-old Steven flees to the miserable town of Grunsby-on-Sea, determined not to hurt anyone else with his "Emomancy": every emotion has an opposite magical reaction.

Where Freya goes, her boyfriend Marcus and American friend Troy soon follow. Together, they are determined to find out more about this organisation and what "neutralising" someone like Steven might mean.

By chance, Steven meets a handsome stranger who claims to share his powers and who offers to teach Steven how to control them. But who is he in relation to DEMA? What on earth happened to make Grunsby-on-Sea so lethargic a town? And can you really trust a charismatic stranger you meet in a café bathroom?

Enter the Underworld in an epic new fantasy duology, HOUSE OF SHADOWS, where the Gods of ancient Greece rule everything but fate.

Deina is trapped. As one of the Soul Severers serving the god Hades on earth, her future is tied to the task of shepherding the dying on from the mortal world – unless she can earn or steal enough to buy her way out.

Then the tyrant ruler Orpheus offers both fortune and freedom to whoever can retrieve his dead wife, Eurydice, from the Underworld. Deina jumps at the chance. But to win, she must enter an uneasy alliance with a group of fellow Severers she neither likes nor trusts. So begins their perilous journey into the realm of Hades... The prize of freedom is before her – but what will it take to reach it?

KATHARINE and ELIZABETH CORR are sisters and writers. Wise Creatures

Deirdre Sullivan
Cover illustrator: Corey Brickley

I always thought that hauntings began with houses. They don't, of course. It's people, isn't it? It starts with people.

Former child psychic Daisy hasn't thought about her past for a long time. She was only six, after all. The 'wise creatures' in the walls of the house, whispering secrets to her, are long gone. Her parents, dead in a mysterious accident, are forgotten. Some surfaces are better left unscratched. Daisy has left those things behind.

And now, ten years on, she has a happy, normal life. But she does wonder, sometimes, about the blank spaces in her memories. The fear when she encounters certain textures, scents. It can be hard to feel safe in a world that's full of fears you can't explain. Thank God for Nina, her trusting, sweet foster sister and best friend. So when something seems to shift in Nina's life Daisy is shaken. Nina has some secret she is guarding, that she won't share with Daisy. And then Nina begins to speak of murmurs in the walls, of cold spots. She claims it isn't her. It's something else. A malevolent force.

And Daisy knows that something's up. And that the wise creatures, locked away for so long, are back. And this time they want both Nina, and Daisy...

A darkly thrilling contemporary supernatural horror novel from award-winning author Deirdre Sullivan.

Honest

Everything They Didn't Tell You About Sex, Relationships and Bodies

Milly Evans
Illustrated by Lucia Picerno

Let's talk about sex.

Reading the above will probably conjure up embarrassing memories of awkward sex-education lessons, the dreaded cringey 'talk' with Mum and Dad. Even worse, those confusing tales of the experiences of your more adventurous friends . . .

But happily, journalist and campaigner Milly Evans, has got it all covered – from sexuality to sexting, masturbation to sexual consent – she lets us in to her number-one secret: grown-ups have NO idea what they're doing. Sex education doesn't need to be embarrassing, scary and only about what you need to be aware of. HONEST is a positive guide to sex, relationships and bodies, full of all the secrets that parents are too scared to talk to their teens about.

In addition to Milly's own views and advice, we meet some brilliant sex-positive activists and inspirational people along the way. LGBTQ+ perspectives are integrated throughout the book, so that every reader can see their experiences reflected and know that sex-and-relationship education doesn't have to be from a hetero-normative perspective.

So, enough foreplay. Let's talk about sex, and spark open and honest conversations through the voice of a young woman who is steeped in the subject and knows how to broach it.

MILLY EVANS is a journalist and sex-education advocate who has been campaigning for a more inclusive and comprehensive sex-education curriculum since 2016. She has worked with Brook and the Terrence Higgins Trust as well as being involved with Stonewall and UNESCO.

LUCIA PICERNO is an award-winning designer and illustrator from Uruguay, living in London. She aims to spread thought-provoking messages that inspire women to be seen and heard. Her clients include Penguin Random House, HarperCollins, Honda, Bodyform, Palmer's and Danone among many others.
