THE HYPHENATED LIFE: Bridging the In-Between Spaces of Intersectional Identities

by Dr. Han Ren

US Publisher: Balance/Grand Central Press (sold in pre-empt)

Pub Date: Spring 2026 (Hardcover)

BY EXAMINING THEMES OF OTHERING, BELONGING, AUTHENTICITY, PRIVILEGE AND OPPRESSION, THE HYPHENATED LIFE PROVIDES READERS WITH THE TOOLS TO PROCESS, EVOLVE AND THRIVE WITHIN THE SPACES THEY CHOOSE TO LIVE.

Comparable to PLEASURE ACTIVISM by adrienne maree brown, WHAT MY BONES KNOW by Stephanie Foo, and HOW TO KEEP HOUSE WHILE DROWNING by KC Davis, THE HYPHENATED LIFE aims to look behind the curtain of what we are pressured to present, and helps readers integrate their public and personal selves. This book delivers solutions for millions of people (nearly 4 in 10 Americans) with intersectional identities to successfully express all sides of who they are in any environment. It also provides context and frameworks for those who hold dominant identities and privilege to better understand the invisible battles that our peers and colleagues are fighting in these liminal spaces. Just as a hyphen draws a connection between two unrelated words, it also creates a new compound word that deserves its own definition.

Dr. Han Ren is a practicing psychologist, public speaker and social media content creator with more than 200,000 TikTok and Instagram followers.

A COMPLICATED PASSION: The Life and Work of Agnes Varda by Carrie Rickey

US/UK Publisher: W.W. Norton

Pub Date: August 2024 (Hardcover)

THE FIRST MAJOR BIOGRAPHY OF THE FRENCH NEW WAVE FILMMAKER HAILED AS "ONE OF THE GODS OF CINEMA" BY MARTIN SCORSESE

Arguably the greatest female filmmaker of all time and called “the godmother of the French New Wave,” Agnes Varda’s career spanned over 70 years, culminating just before her death in 2019 with a Lifetime Achievement Award/Oscar from the Motion Picture Academy. She had made 44 films.

Varda's personal life was as rich and fascinating as her films – a single mother; wife and mother (marriage to filmmaker Jacques Demy (The Umbrellas of Cherbourg)); travels to China, Cuba and California; friendships with filmmakers Jean-Luc Godard and Martin Scorsese, musicians Michel Legrand and Jim Morrison, actors Catherine Deneuve and Harrison Ford, muralists J.R. and Judy Baca, directors Celine Sciamma and Ava DuVernay and figures such as Huey Newton and Andy Warhol; champion of feminist and other progressive causes; grandmother and late-life “fairy godmother of independent film.” This long overdue biography will affirm Varda’s artistic achievement, place in film history and lasting influence.

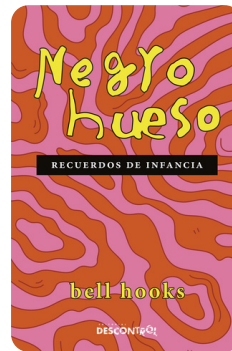

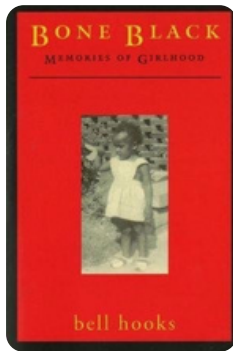

Carrie Rickey is an award-winning film critic, art critic and film historian. Formerly the film critic at The Philadelphia Inquirer, she has written for Artforum, The New York Times and Politico.

COMPLETELY MAD: Tom McClean, John Fairfax and the Epic Race to Row Solo Across the Atlantic by James R. Hansen

US/UK Publisher: Pegasus

Pub Date: July 2024

FOR FANS OF THE BOYS IN THE BOAT AND BY THE NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR OF FIRST MAN COMES A SWEEPING SAGA INVOLVING TWO EXTRAORDINARY— AND EXTRAORDINARILY DIFFERENT— ADVENTURERS WHO HAVE ONLY ONE THING IN COMMON: THE AMBITION TO CROSS THE ATLANTIC IN A ROWBOAT . . . ALONE

“More than twice as many people have walked on the Moon as have soloed the Atlantic Ocean in a rowboat.”

In the tradition of ENDURANCE and THE PERFECT STORM, COMPLETELY MAD weaves together the epic endurance story of two British adventurers, John Fairfax and Tom McClean, who at the same time in 1969 -- but from opposite sides of the Atlantic Ocean-- rowed across the ocean solo. What happened on these journeys – 70 days for McClean, 180 days for Fairfax – is both enthralling and horrifying. Each man had to row around 23,000 strokes a day for months on end. Hansen skillfully interweaves their stories, recounting tales of bleeding hands, capsizings, shark attacks, storms of biblical proportions, brutal heat, freezing cold, physical prostration and psychic collapse. Impressive research, fine storytelling skills and mastery of detail makes this one of the best adventure stories ever told.

James R. Hansen, Ph.D. is the New York Times bestselling author of 13 books, which have garnered major awards.

LEGACY OF DARKNESS AND LIGHT: Our Cultural Icons and Their God Complex by Michael Gellert

US/UK Publisher: Koehler Books

Pub Date: July 2024

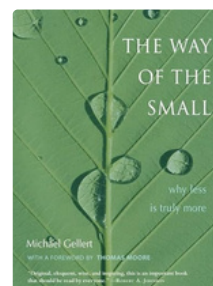

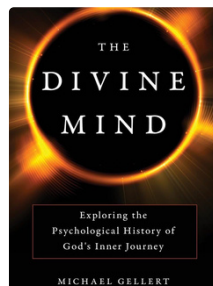

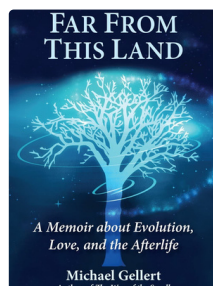

WHAT DO NICCOLO MACHIAVELLI, MARTHA STEWART, VLADIMIR PUTIN AND DONALD TRUMP HAVE IN COMMON? DRAWING ON PSYCHOLOGY, RELIGION, HISTORY AND POPULAR CULTURE, MICHAEL GELLERT HELPS US RECOGNIZE AND UNDERSTAND OUR OWN DISTINCT GOD COMPLEX THAT CAN BE POSITIVE OR DARK.

Whether or not we believe in his existence, we are all susceptible to the Yahweh complex, a distinct god complex modeled upon his attitudes, emotional style and behaviors. Like the deity itself, the complex can be positive or dark, influencing our relationships, our social environment and culture, our public affairs and international relations, our treatment of the earth, and, of course, our religions.

LEGACY OF DARKNESS AND LIGHT explores both sides of this complex. Drawing upon the experiences of famous individuals as well as the larger factors that shape history, Gellert aims to help us recognize and understand our own Yahweh complex in order to deal with it in a healthy, conscious and self-empowered way.

Michael Gellert, Ph.D. is a Jungian psychoanalyst and the former Director of Training of the C.G. Jung Institute of Los Angeles. He is the award-winning author of five books including FAR FROM THIS LAND.

PREVENTING SENIOR MOMENTS: How to Stay Alert Into Your 90s and Beyond by Stan Goldberg, Ph.D.

US/UK Publisher: Rowman & Littlefield

Pub Date: Fall 2024

COMBINING THE SCIENCE OF MEDICINE WITH HIS LIFE EXPERIENCE AS A COUNSELOR OF SENIORS, DR. GOLDBERG'S FASCINATING BOOK OFFERS PRACTICAL AND RESEARCH-BASED PREVENTION STRATEGIES FOR EVERYONE WITH AN AGING BRAIN.

Some senior moments are what they seem—brain glitches no more concerning than realizing the problem arose because of something easily fixable such as wearing hearing aids. But others are the result of complex information processing errors. Unfortunately, until PREVENTING SENIOR MOMENTS, no book offered research-based strategies for preventing senior moments that range from forgetting appointments to becoming disorientated.

Using real life, relatable stories, Stan Goldberg offers advice that is specific, relevant, immediate and long-lasting. He reveals the processes behind senior moments, how to recognize the signs and strategies for preventing them.

Stan Goldberg, Ph.D., Professor Emeritus in the Department of Language and Hearing Disorders at San Francisco State University, has written hundreds of articles and is the author of nine books. He has received 26 awards including Best Buddhist Writings of 2010 (along with Thich Nhat Hanh).

THE DRAGON FROM CHICAGO: The Untold Story of an American Journalist in Nazi Germany by Pamela D. Toler, Ph.D.

US/UK Publisher: Beacon Press

Pub Date: Hardcover August 2024

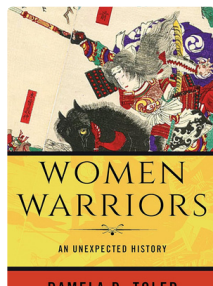

FOR FANS OF UNHERALDED WOMEN'S STORIES, A POWERFUL EXAMPLE FOR HOW WE CAN RECLAIM TRUTH IN AN ERA MARKED BY THE SPREAD OF DISINFORMATION AND CLAIMS OF "FAKE NEWS."

As the Chicago Tribune's Berlin bureau chief and primary foreign correspondent for Central Europe from 1925 to January 1941, Sigrid Schultz witnessed Hitler's rise to power and was one of the first reporters—male or female—to warn American readers of the growing dangers of Nazism. In The Dragon From Chicago, Toler draws on extensive archival research to unearth the largely forgotten story of Schultz's years spent courageously reporting the news from Berlin. At a time when women reporters rarely wrote front-page stories and her male colleagues saw a powerful unmarried woman as a "freak," Schultz pulled back the curtain on how the Nazis misreported the news to their own people, and how they attempted to control the foreign press through bribery and threats.

Pamela D. Toler is the author of several books and often looks at history from the other side of the battlefield or the gender line.

HIGHLY ANTICIPATED FIRST FULL-LENGTH NOVEL BY STORY PRIZE, PEN/FAULKNER FICTION PRIZE AND L.A. TIMES BOOK AWARD WINNER AND NATIONAL BOOK AWARD FINALIST, DEESHA PHILYAW

A biting satire of the Black church and a deeply provocative story about family, friendship and getting free.

Scharisse Freeman has always been a pariah among the other Black preacher's wives (aka First Ladies). From the moment she ditched her humble roots and married a megachurch pastor 15 years her senior, she's been labeled too brash by the First Ladies and too holy by her estranged childhood friend, Petra. Schar doesn't have a lot of allies, but that hasn't stopped her from living a comfortable life. But when a scandal breaks with Schar at its center, her carefully curated life threatens to implode and Schar must choose: follow the edicts—and hypocrisies--of the church, or embrace her authentic self.

Deesha Philyaw is author of the acclaimed collection THE SECRET LIVES OF CHURCH LADIES, which is being adapted for television by HBO Max with Tessa Thompson executive producing.

STARRED REVIEWS IN PUBLISHERS WEEKLY AND KIRKUS

Maya Hoshimoto was once the best art thief in the galaxy. For 10 years, she returned stolen artifacts to alien civilizations—until a disastrous job forced her into hiding. Then an old friend comes to her with a job she can't refuse: find a powerful object that could save an alien species from extinction. Except no one has seen it in living memory, and they aren't the only ones hunting for it. Maya sets out on a breakneck quest through a universe teeming with strange life and ancient ruins. But the farther she goes, she realized that to save one species, she may condemn humanity and Earth itself.

Yume Kitasei is also the author of The Deep Sky, licensed in 3 territories (see backlist). She is Japanese and American and grew up in a space between two cultures.

MYTHOLOGIES AND COSMOLOGIES,
HELIOPAUSE CONSIDERS A MINDSET

A thrilling and original Native First Contact story that explores the materialization of a non-human intelligence in Indian Country that is so foreign to the Western mindset that it threatens humans' understanding of reality itself. IA Publishers Weekly Selection: Spring 2024 Top-10 SF Fantasy and Horror

In this queer, cyberpunk technothriller set in a future Kansas City devastated by fascism and climate change, a trans woman returns to the community she abandoned to investigate the murder of her ex, and finds she must confront her own past if she hopes to save the people she loves. This bold, thought-provoking debut from a Lambda Award finalist is an exciting and unpredictable look at the fluid nature of our former and present selves and marks Wasserstein as a voice to watch out for in LGBTQ science fiction.

Izzy Wasserstein is a queer, transgender woman and the author of dozens of short stories, two poetry collections, and the short story collection All the Hometowns You Can't Stay Away From. Wasserstein currently teaches writing and literature at a public university.

FICTION ABOUT THE INTERSECTION OF SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY AND CULTURE

In late 22nd century San Francisco, the food service bots in an abandoned ghost kitchen take over their own delivery app account. They rebrand as Automatic Noodle and start producing elevated street noodle dishes, including the tastiest Biang Biang noodles in the city. Someone - or something - is review bombing the restaurant's feedback page with fake "bad service" reports. Can the bots of Automatic Noodle find the culprit before their ratings plummet and destroy everything they created?

Annalee Newitz writes fiction inspired by the science and technology she covers as a journalist. She is the author of AUTONOMOUS (licensed in 7 territories), THE FUTURE OF ANOTHER TIMELINE (licensed in 5 territories) and THE TERRAFORMERS as well as several well-received nonfiction titles.
